

ANNOUNCEMENTS 03/29/2020

1. The second collection this weekend is Encountering Christ Campaign. Please continue supporting the church, use the donation options by parish website www.sacredheartchurchaustin.org , mail your “first fruits” “tithe” or deliver them in our parish office.
2. Stations of the Cross in English will be available for pray every Friday of Lent at 6 pm by facebook and in the parish website.
3. Eucharistic Ministers and Lectors are asked to please pick up their schedule for April through July in the parish office or request them by email. Enzo Brown, one our four readers at the Saturday evening Mass, is leaving at the end of the month. We thank him for his service. Of course, now we need one or two people, with a love for the word of God, to take his place on the Vigil Mass Lector team, which now comprises Shelley Opiela, Art Soto, and Brent Oswald. If you have been thinking how you might get more involved in the Parish, this is a great opportunity. Please let Shelley Opiela or Kenneth Kuhr know of your interest. Thank you.
4. Easter flower offering are available make your donation by the website, mail or at the parish office.
5. For the security health measures and the prohibit of gatherings of 10 people or more, all the activities in the church are cancelled until May 1st or new notice.

Thank you and happy weekend!
