DSM Criteria for PTSD

In 2000, the American Psychiatric Association revised the PTSD diagnostic criteria in the fourth edition of its Diagnostic and Statistical Manual of Mental Disorders (DSM-IV-TR)(1). The diagnostic criteria (A-F) are specified below.

Diagnostic criteria for PTSD include a history of exposure to a traumatic event meeting two criteria and symptoms from each of three symptom clusters: intrusive recollections, avoidant/numbing symptoms, and hyper-arousal symptoms. A fifth criterion concerns duration of symptoms and a sixth assesses functioning.

Criterion A: stressor
The person has been exposed to a traumatic event in which both of the following have been present:

1. The person has experienced, witnessed, or been confronted with an event or events that involve actual or threatened death or serious injury, or a threat to the physical integrity of oneself or others.
2. The person's response involved intense fear, helplessness, or horror. Note: in children, it may be expressed instead by disorganized or agitated behavior.

Criterion B: intrusive recollection
The traumatic event is persistently re-experienced in at least one of the following ways:

1. Recurrent and intrusive distressing recollections of the event, including images, thoughts, or perceptions. Note: in young children, repetitive play may occur in which themes or aspects of the trauma are expressed.
2. Recurrent distressing dreams of the event. Note: in children, there may be frightening dreams without recognizable content.
3. Acting or feeling as if the traumatic event were recurring (includes a sense of reliving the experience, illusions, hallucinations, and dissociative flashback episodes, including those that occur upon awakening or when intoxicated). Note: in children, trauma-specific reenactment may occur.
4. Intense psychological distress at exposure to internal or external cues that symbolize or resemble an aspect of the traumatic event.
5. Physiologic reactivity upon exposure to internal or external cues that symbolize or resemble an aspect of the traumatic event.

Criterion C: avoidant/numbing
Persistent avoidance of stimuli associated with the trauma and numbing of general responsiveness (not present before the trauma), as indicated by at least three of the following:

1. Efforts to avoid thoughts, feelings, or conversations associated with the trauma
2. Efforts to avoid activities, places, or people that arouse recollections of the trauma
3. Inability to recall an important aspect of the trauma
4. Markedly diminished interest or participation in significant activities
5. Feeling of detachment or estrangement from others
6. Restricted range of affect (e.g., unable to have loving feelings)
7. Sense of foreshortened future (e.g., does not expect to have a career, marriage, children, or a normal life span)

Criterion D: hyper-arousal
Persistent symptoms of increasing arousal (not present before the trauma), indicated by at least two of the following:
1. Difficulty falling or staying asleep
2. Irritability or outbursts of anger
3. Difficulty concentrating
4. Hyper-vigilance
5. Exaggerated startle response

Criterion E: duration
Duration of the disturbance (symptoms in B, C, and D) is more than one month.

Criterion F: functional significance
The disturbance causes clinically significant distress or impairment in social, occupational, or other important areas of functioning.

Specify if:

Acute: if duration of symptoms is less than three months

Chronic: if duration of symptoms is three months or more

Specify if:

With or Without delay onset: Onset of symptoms at least six months after the stressor

THEMES IN EZEKIEL!!

The significance of PROVERBS in the community is an interesting aspect of EZEKIEL:

9 times in Ezekiel, more than any other book
6 in Proverbs!
Numbers (Balaam story) = 8

“Rebellious Nation” – “House of Rebellion” is ONLY in Ezekiel

Ben Adam – Predominantly in Ezekiel

“Before their eyes” 67% of all uses in the Bible

“Scattered to the winds” 16 times in Ezekiel, Jer = 6

KNOW “that I am Yahweh” 65% in Ezekiel, 70 times (11 in Ex ann 10 numbers)
  - similar to Exodus language about Pharaoh

“Abominations” Deu 17, 14%, Ezek. 43, 36%; Prov. 22, 19%

CH. 13 – ISSUE OF FALSE PROPHETS

CH. 17 – NO REBELLION WITH EGYPT (Similar to Jeremiah)

CH. 18 – PERSONAL RESPONSIBILITY – The parable about eating sour grapes and children’s teeth on edge!

CHANGES AT THE TOP???

Relationship of parts of Ch. 34.
34: 1-16 – God replaces the Shepherds?
34: 17-22 – God will JUDGE between Sheep and Goats (mishpat 17,20,22 ONLY)
34: 23-24 – DAVID!
34:25-31 (Like Hosea 2) the New Paradise (New Eden?)

But is the DAVID STUFF ORIGINAL???

SOCIAL JUSTICE IN EZEKIEL:

Ezekiel does seem concerned with Cultic matters:
(1) Against Idols  6:4,6, 7:20
(2) High Places 6:4, 6, 18:6
(3) Pagan rites  8:14,16,17
(4) Divination 13:17-23
(5) Profaning the Sabbath  20:13ff; 21:7
(6) Sexual abominations 18:6; 22:10
(7) Contempt for holy things 22:8
(8) Defiling the Temple, Jerusalem, and Land 5:11/9:9/36:17

BUT ALSO JUSTICE:
(1) violence 7:10, 23; 8:17; 12:19
(2) bribery 22:12
(3) exploitation of weak 18:7-8, 13; 22:7, 12, 25, 29
(4) contempt for elderly parents 22:7
(5) shedding innocent blood 7:23; 9:9; 22:3-4

But the relationship between “cultic” and “social” can be somewhat challenged.

In what way is idolatry an indication of particular socio-political alliances?
In what way is divination a sign of social subordination and powerlessness?
- Asian Women Spirit Possession a function of powerlessness in work-place/sweatshops
Jeremiah (Lecture to preceed role-play)

Jeremiah was a prophet during the time of Babylonian Ascendancy over the Assyrian Empire - the end of the 7th and beginning of the 6th Centuries BCE.
- People believed that God would protect them because of the seemingling miraculous delivery of Jerusalem from the siege of the Assyrians.
- The Deuternomic Movement and its attitude toward the past was negative. But did they honestly believe that the nation would be punished? OR is all the material about the exile inserted after the fact.

FOUR PERIODS OF JEREMIAH's ACTIVITY

1) Under Josiah 626-622 - Criticism of the Cult Chs. 1-6
2) Jehoiakim 609-605 - ¶-16, Religious, political opposition
   Jeremiah was forced underground by Jehoiakim. There seemed to be a pro-Babylonian sentiment among some of the Judeans, probably out of hatred for Assyria and mistrust of Egypt. Jehoiakim was placed by the Egyptians, so that explains part of the opposition.

3) Zedekiah's fourth year Chs. 27-29; 32-34; 37-39

4) After 586 - preaching among the remnant 40-44

SOME INTERESTING THINGS ABOUT JEREMIAH:

1) Amos preached unconditional disaster, but like Hosea, Jeremiah has hope for a possible conversion, and restoration after the tragedy.

2) Compassion is evident in Jeremiah's preaching - a recognition of suffering, but a strong identification with the suffering to come - and his own suffering! Is this an identification with the people?

3) Jeremiah believes in a re-united Israel after the tragedy to come
4) The prophets see the domination of Israel by a non-Israelite power as part of God's plan for maintaining God's plan for the people.

Jeremiah is divided into 3 literary strata:

(A) Brief poetic sayings - in the first person - mostly in 1-25 - thus mostly by the Prophet himself. The Oracles against nations (e.g. Egypt, Babylon, etc.) are in doubt.

(B) Third person reports About Jeremiah's activity and fate: 19:1-20:6; 26-29; 37-44.

(C) Long First person speeches - they mark changes in subject and use a different terminology than the prophet, or Baruch:
   1:4-10; 7, 11; 18; 21; 25; 32; 34
   There is more emphasis on repentence and possibility of future salvation. These are Deuteronomic. Are they speeches for public lamentation? Perhaps similar to the book of Lamentations?

SOME IMPORTANT THINGS TO POINT OUT:

Ch. 1 - The Call narrative - similarity to Moses because of the idea of a new Exodus?

Ch. 7 - the Temple Sermon? A Deuteronomistic Section (no doubt, however, similar to Jeremiah's own attitude).
   - Temple worship as forgiveness of sins. Again a condemnation of the tradition.
   - Alien gods, rejection of the prophets
   - Worship without sincerity.
   - Prediction of the Exile - Dtic editing to drive home the Dtic interpretation of history.

NOTE ON THE DEUTERONOMIC HISTORICAL VIEW: How saying "It was our fault" (like, "we lost the game") is somehow comforting - it does not give the opposition any support! It also preserves the faith.

Ch. 11 - The conflict of Jeremiah with his own relatives in Anathoth and with the Temple personnel. Ch. 20, Jeremiah being arrested by Temple guards struck and imprisoned.
Note also the "persecutions" of Jeremiah - 32-45 taken to Egypt after being spared by the Babylonians.

THE CONTEST: 26-29
The Condemnation of the Temple (probably the sermon of Ch. 7) and the reaction against Jeremiah.
WHY WAS THIS HERESY? Isa. 37:33-35
Ch. 27 the context with Hananiah The symbolic yoke and the bending of one's neck to Babylon.
Ch. 28 The Dispute with Hananiah
Hananiah says that in two years the exiles will return
Jeremiah’s wooden yoke, which is broken
Jeremiah’s metal yoke, and the death of Hananiah

Ch. 29 - The Letter to the Exiles
What is being said here? Connection with the Deuternomic laws of war Ch. 20
This letter is sometimes used to say that the exile wasn’t that bad. But this is before the major exile, and also it notes social unrest!!

Things to keep in mind about Jeremiah:

1) The prophet of pathos
2) The notion of foreign nations in God’s plan (after AMOS?)
More on monotheism? The idea of surrender in Just War??
3) Prophetic conflict – the one who speaks God’s word is UNEXPECTED!!
