Established in 1887, The Catholic University of America is the national university of the Catholic Church and the only higher education institution founded by the US bishops. To extend its reach beyond the Washington, DC main campus, Catholic University is partnering with Pima Community College, local employers, and community organizations to create a personalized, experiential-oriented and supportive faith environment for postsecondary learners in Tucson.

What the community is saying about our new program in Tucson

“I am truly excited that our young people will have an opportunity to receive an education from The Catholic University of America steeped in our Catholic intellectual tradition without having to leave Tucson. Through this program the future is bright for Tucson as students contemplate living a life of meaning and are shaped into virtuous business leaders.”

Bishop Weisenburger

“The program has the dual aim of making an innovation investment in a new generation of learners, especially those from the large and growing Hispanic population in the area, and helping address local workforce development needs via close cooperation with area employers.”

Aaron Dominguez
Provost, The Catholic University of America

“Pima couldn’t be more pleased to partner with Catholic University to expand educational opportunities in our region. As a designated Hispanic Serving Institution, Pima is dedicated to ensuring our region has the resources students need to create better lives for themselves and their families.”

Lee Lambert
Chancellor, Pima Community College

Words from the community and our strategic partners in Tucson

“I got involved because it’s a pilot program that hasn’t existed anywhere else. Bringing online concepts to study at your own pace, and to deliver to students who wouldn’t have been able to, with a prestigious university.”

Humberto S. Lopez
Founder & Chairman, HSL Properties

“As a home-grown Tucson company for 35 years, Cushman & Wakefield | PICOR loves to keep talent in this community after graduation! Qualities that stand out when we hire include initiative, judgment, communication skills, confidence, and high energy. We know that partnering with Catholic U will afford us positive connections where we can share insights and opportunities and collaborate with the next generation of leaders.”

Barbi Reuter
Chief Executive Officer and Principal, PICOR Commercial Real Estate Services

“When I first heard about what CUA was doing in Tucson, I lit up like a Christmas tree, and it was for two reasons: 1. Preparing local people to be part of our businesses 2. What it means to be a human being and fully who you are- it’s needed in a lot of our education today.”

Rob Lamb
Chief Operations Officer, GHLN Architects & Engineers, Inc.

“I am a big believer in Tucson. When I heard about this innovative Catholic University program with its desire to form deep partnerships with local Tucson employers while providing a quality education at a fraction of the cost, I just had to collaborate and bring others to be involved. This is a wonderfully amazing opportunity for our young people right here in Tucson.”
