Announcements:

- 1) Most probably, you have heard of the four-week, province-wide “shutdown,” announced by Premier Doug Ford, that will begin on Saturday, April 3 at 12:01 am. The limited capacity of religious services is 15% occupancy and 2 metres of physical distancing. Thank God, we have big churches. We may be walking on a tight rope but with your cooperation and understanding we should be able to run our services as scheduled. We shall cautiously have our Easter Masses, and beyond Easter our regular services. So, if the ushers don't allow you in because the church is 15% full on Sunday, you can plan to attend a daily Mass at St. Carthagh's or you can watch a Mass on TV or by live-streaming. We are in it together. With co-operation, understanding and sacrifice, we will get to the end safely.
- 2) Isn't it great to know how special we are to Him? Jesus died for us and rose to new life for us. Jesus is God's perfect way of showing us just how much he loves us. May you experience the favour of God's unconditional love and companionship even during the pandemic and the shutdown. Christ is risen, Alleluia! Happy Easter!
