

ARCHDIOCESE of KINGSTON

1 June 2021
St. Justin Martyr

My dear Faithful of the Archdiocese:

Today, we begin the month of June, which is traditionally dedicated to the Sacred Heart of Jesus. I am inviting you to join with me in dedicating ourselves in private prayer, and as a community, to this precious mystery. The continued restrictions resulting from the pandemic will make our communal celebrations difficult. However, it is my prayer that, before the end of the month, we will be in a better position to enjoy much greater freedom to gather.

His Eminence Cardinal Thomas Collins, the Archbishop of Toronto, has prepared a beautiful pastoral letter on the Sacred Heart, which I have sent as an attachment with this letter. I ask that each of you take the time to read his gift to each of us and reflect on the mystery of God's self-revelation to humanity. May this reflection during the month of June allow us—and our Catholic groups and institutions—to move closer to the Sacred Heart of Jesus.

Be assured of my continued prayers for each of you during these difficult times.

In Christ,

+Michael Mulhall
Archbishop of Kingston
