

+ Dear QOA Families,

Let us keep the Confirmation class in our prayers. Next Thursday, April 22, the Confirmandi will be strengthened with the seven gifts of the Holy Spirit which they received at their baptism. In a reflection by theologian, Bishop Robert Barron, we are reminded that the gifts are signs that the Christian is called to participate in Jesus' mission. Let us pray that wisdom, understanding, counsel, fortitude, knowledge, piety, and fear of the Lord be strengthened in us as we strive to do God's will each day. Holy Spirit, enlighten us!

Also, we ask you to keep in your prayers our work as we continue to prepare for our Middle States reaccreditation visit next spring. We are busy formulating the various required documents. Next Wednesday, April 21, a day off for students, the faculty will be busy with Middle States preparations.

We will also take time on Wednesday to show our deepest appreciation to Mrs. O'Doherty and Mrs. O'Connor as we celebrate Administrative Professionals Day! Their day in and day out dedication and hard work on behalf of all at Queen of Angels School does not go unnoticed. They are such a blessing to our school community!!! Happy Administrative Professionals Day, Mrs. O'Doherty and Mrs. O'Connor. We thank you, we love you, and we ask God's special blessings on each of you and your loved ones 😊.

In Mary's Immaculate Heart, I am,
Sister Mary