33 Days to Morning Glory

Week three of our retreat begins. Hopefully you are developing the good spiritual "habit" of your everyday reflection and prayer. Try to hold that daily meditation in your heart and mind and to ponder it as much as you can through your daily routine. Do not give into discouragement. All prayer is a battle. If you would like an extra boost try listening to Fr. Michael Gaitley's retreat talks accessible through our parish website. Start planning to go to confession before December 8th. Every retreat encourages the celebration of the Sacrament of Penance and Reconciliation for growth in holiness.

Dear Parishioners of St. Catherine Laboure:

It is the time of year to think of those less fortunate. The Concord Pulaski Christmas Basket project is under way. The churches of Concord and Pulaski are once again asking for your help to make Christmas a little brighter for those in need. We are holding a non-perishable food drive to supplement the Christmas baskets, monetary donations are also needed to purchase the perishables and gifts for the children that live in these homes. Food collecting will start here the weekend of November 16th and run through December 12th. Baskets will be packed on December 12th and 13th and delivered on December 14th in time for Christmas. Last year we were able to provide baskets to 37 households. Please call Joyce Kesterson at 517-563-2902 by December 2nd if you know of anyone in the Concord/Pulaski area that may qualify for our help. Checks may be made out to Concord-Pulaski Community Fund and mailed to P.O. Box 111, Concord, MI 49237.

Thank you! Cheryl Reinker
