

I WILL MAKE THIS DAY MY PRAYER

Words & Music by David Kaufman

I will make this day my prayer.
I will give you everything that I am and do today.
I will give you all my cares;
 all my joys and sufferings.
I will make this day my prayer.

And when I work
 may my work usher in your reign.
And as I go may I go with you.
And when I speak
 may my lips sing your praise again
May my words be light and truth.

And when I see my friends
 may they see you in me.
And may I see your face in them.
And may our conversation lead us to the freedom
That your presence beckons in.

And when I ask forgiveness may my heart be true.
And may I offer forgiveness, too.
And when we reconcile may we be one in you.
May forgiveness make our hearts new.
