Every letter is narrated and reinforced by a word beginning with the same letter: A is for Angel, B is for Baptism, C is for Crucifix. The narration, words, and images, accompanied by music, help children learn basic phonetics and Catholic concepts. With older children, the program can introduce spelling and faith concepts, or be an introduction to an activity or assignment requiring students to create their own presentation of Catholic concepts related to the letters of the alphabet.

The Holy Spirit and the Life of Grace: God's Divine Life within Us - One of the most profound aspects of the Catholic faith is that Christ sent his Spirit to dwell in the hearts of the baptized. Why Do I Need the Church? The Mystery of the Catholic Church - Some people say, "I'm spiritual, but not religious." or "I like Jesus, but don't need a Church." Note: This segment on Church begins with a negative interpretation of the motivations of non-practicing Catholics. Viewers may wish to skip through the first several minutes of part one in segment two. (Includes Participant's Guide and Leader's Guide. Program Introduction Guide available upon request.)

Just a Good Man or Lord of Our Lives? - Jesus is more than a good teacher or a good example. He claimed to be God. We must either believe what he said, or discount him as a person of any credibility. The choice is yours to make (33 min.). The Paschal Mystery: The Mystery of Jesus' Death and Resurrection - Through Jesus' death on the cross, God reveals himself most profoundly as the God who is love. Christ's sacrificial love saves us from sin and shows us the pathway to true human happiness. We are made to live like Christ, in total, self-giving love (33 min.). (Includes Participant's Guide and Leader's Guide. Program Introduction Guide available upon request.)

Each program in this series reflects the conviction that Catholic faith is most "effective" when it forms people's identity and shapes how we respond to the "great questions" – the real issues – of life. DVD 1: As Catholic Christians, we interpret and discern our faith through our faith community – the Church and its teaching authority. We also approach our Scripture and Tradition as a great unfolding story that calls us to the vision of God's reign, bringing our lives to this faith and this faith to our lives, drawing out truths both old and new, and always seeking what promotes "life for all" – for ourselves and for the world. (DVD 1 of 9)

What Makes Us Catholic: DVD 02 - Who Do We Think We Are? Living As Graceful People

Each program in this series reflects the conviction that Catholic faith is most "effective" when it forms people's identity and shapes how we respond to the "great questions" – the real issues – of life. DVD 2: Made in divine likeness and alive by divine life, the essential goodness and positive potential of our human condition is ultimately affirmed by the Incarnation – that God came among us as one of ourselves in Jesus. Though capable of terrible sin and destruction, we are more prone to good than evil. Now, by God's grace in Jesus we can be agents of God's kingdom, doing God's will "on earth as it is in heaven." (DVD 2 of 9)

What Makes Us Catholic: DVD 03 - What's It All About? Taking A Sacramental View

Each program in this series reflects the conviction that Catholic faith is most "effective" when it forms people's identity and shapes how we respond to the "great questions" – the real issues – of life. DVD 3: The "principle of sacramentality," the presence and grace of God through the ordinary and everyday, is central to Catholic faith. It should pervade our whole outlook on life in the world – not just what we do in our churches. We can truly come "to see God in all things." This outlook can lend a deep sense of meaning and purpose to every aspect of our lives and to how we give glory to God just by being alive. (DVD 3 of 9)

What Makes Us Catholic: DVD 04 - Are We Made For Each Other? Getting Together For Good

Each program in this series reflects the conviction that Catholic faith is most "effective" when it forms people's identity and shapes how we respond to the "great questions" – the real issues – of life. DVD 4: Catholics believe in a relational understanding of our lives in the world; that is, that we are essentially communal beings. Furthermore, we are responsible for, and to, each other. We are called to serve the "common good" as well as to promote our own well-being. As a higher ideal, we are called upon to love our neighbors, even enemies, as we love ourselves. And this communal love is also a measure of our love for God. (DVD 4 of 9)

What Makes Us Catholic: DVD 05 - What Time Do We Have? Mining The Treasure Of Scripture And Tradition

Each program in this series reflects the conviction that Catholic faith is most "effective" when it forms people's identity and shapes how we respond to the "great questions" – the real issues – of life. DVD 5: Catholicism has consistently emphasized both Scripture and Tradition as sources of God's revelation. Though God's "original" revelation comes to us through Scripture, the Holy Spirit guides the Church to deepen its understanding and develop its teaching of Christian faith down through the ages. Note well, too, that Catholicism has never favored a "literalist" approach to Scripture or Tradition; both need to be interpreted by the whole Church as it responds to new questions and challenges from age to age. (DVD 5 of 9)

What Makes Us Catholic: DVD 06 - In What Will We Invest? Risking The Leap Of Faith

Each program in this series reflects the conviction that Catholic faith is most "effective" when it forms people's identity and shapes how we respond to the "great questions" – the real issues – of life. DVD 6: The Baltimore Catechism taught that the whole purpose of human existence is to "know, love, and serve God in this life and to be happy forever in the next." This catechism reflected well the wholeness of Christian faith as epitomized in the Great Commandment. To be a disciple of Jesus demands our whole mind, heart, and strength – our very lives. Our Christian vocation is to invest our heads, hearts, and hands in living our faith. (DVD 6 of 9)
