These stories give children insights into the way other children live in far-off places like India, Turkey, China, Ethiopia, and Iraq. Each introduces exotic places and wonderful customs and traditions. Each also offers guidelines for before reading the story as well as questions, activities, and prayers for after reading the story. Twenty-six of the stories are about individual children from diverse cultures, and sixteen are based on cultural feasts and festivals from around the world including St. Nicholas Day, Advent, Christmas, Epiphany, Baptism of Jesus, Purim, Hina Matsuri, Great and Holy Friday and Holy Saturday, Corpus Christi, Eid-ul-Fitr, Raksha Bandhan, Hanukkah, All Saints and All Souls Day, Loy Krathong, and Baptism.

He's Got The Whole World In His Hands

In 2004, something extraordinary happened. Three men, each from a very different background, were ordained as priests for the Archdiocese of Dubuque. It was indeed a celebration of God's Call to His people around the world. This video looks at the lives of those special men and their Call to the priesthood. Rev. Nilis Hernandez (Nicaragua), Rev. Nick March (Cedar Rapids, Iowa), and Rev. Dustin Vu (Vietnam), tell the story of their decision to become priests...to give their life in the service of God.

A small film crew has traveled the world with recording equipment and cameras in search of inspiration. They have traveled from streets and subways to Native American reservations, through African towns and villages, up to the Himalayan Mountains, and beyond. Throughout this journey they have created a movement connecting the world through music. This DVD is a collective statement from over 100 musicians spanning five continents. Many of them have never met in person, but through their different cultures, these songs demonstrate a profound interdependence and willingness to unite. Through music we can understand our differences and create a better world. DVD includes Stand By Me, One Love, War/No More Trouble, Don't Worry, Chanda Mama, (Bonus chapters: The Playing For Change Foundation, Peace Through Music)

Meet Jenny, Steven, Emily and Taylor. Each of these children of different ages and with different disabilities, has an uncanny gift to not only accept their own challenges but help others learn and persevere as well. You will also meet the teen volunteers who interact with these children and discover that we all have something to learn from each other. By offering us hope, inspiration, and so much more, these special children enlighten us about our own frailties, assist us to overcome the obstacles which affect all our lives, and teach us about human relationships.

What Makes Us Catholic: DVD 08 - Who Is Our Neighbor? Loving Beyond Borders

Each program in this series reflects the conviction that Catholic faith is most "effective" when it forms people's identity and shapes how we respond to the "great questions" – the real issues – of life. DVD VIII: The universality of God's love calls us to care for and reach out to all people and to welcome into our community, with equality and full respect, all who wish to belong. In fact, Jesus desired a special outreach to the marginalized of society; his Church should do likewise. The Church has a unity in faith while it welcomes diversity in expression. This is an instance of the Catholic charism at its best – to say both/and rather than either/or – Scripture and Tradition, nature and grace, reason and revelation. (DVD 8 of 9)
