What are you really worth? What is any human being worth? The Touch of the Master's Hand is a captivating discussion starter that speaks to the worth and potential of every human being. This film parable, based on the beloved poem by Myra Brooks Welch, follows the path of a precious, finely crafted violin that falls into unwanted and uncaring hands. It was about to be auctioned off for almost nothing until it received a touch from the master's hand, which recovered and revealed its great value. A powerful, thought provoking story that shows that life is valuable and that anyone can find renewal and begin again. Includes English and Spanish tracks with or without English subtitles and director's commentary. (A religious classic)

Dogmatic Theology: Coming To Know God Through Man's Best Friend - DVD II - The Seven Dogly Sins / Cages And Fences

DV 30873 YA, A 98 min.
Mallon, Rev. James © 2011 John Paul II Media Institute

Based upon Rev. James Mallon's many experiences with the often-mischievous dog, "Monzi," this course explores themes central to the Christian faith. Each theme probes into a mystery of faith that is then illuminated with a witness story as well as a teaching by Dogmatic Theologian, Dr. David Deane. The Seven Dogly Sins: Sin, Guilt and Forgiveness - This session defines key concepts such as sin, guilt and shame. It provides insights into the Doctrine of Original Sin and explores human brokenness. It includes discussion of mercy and God's forgiveness of humanity's infinite debt through the Cross of Jesus Christ. (49 min.) Cages and Fences: Surrendering to Christ - Rather than resisting Jesus through attempts to cage Him, viewers are invited to see the abundant life possible once they surrender to Jesus and set Him free to enter every aspect of their lives. Amazing Love: The Story Of Hosea

DV 31067 J, S 80 min.
© 2012 Five And Two Pictures

Four teenagers embark on a weekend camping trip led by their church youth group leader and his wife. Joining them is a teen outsider who is materialistic and self-involved and whose bad attitude, largely a result of a difficult home situation, separates her from the group. When a confrontation occurs, the division in the group widens. Hoping for a resolution, the youth leader takes the opportunity to share the touching story of the Old Testament prophet Hosea, his unfaithful wife, and his true commitment and unconditional love for her. This powerful story inspires the teens to take a second look at God's love for them and their love for God and each other. This drama intertwines the Biblical setting of Hosea with scenes of today's real-life issues. (Includes English subtitles)

Most (Czech for "The Bridge") is a parable about a loving father, his young son, and the fateful day when they attempt to head off an impending rail disaster. Hundreds of passengers aboard an oncoming steam train are completely unaware of the danger that looms as they head toward an open drawbridge. A desperate young woman witnesses an act of mercy beyond imagination, changing her life forever. Both heart wrenching and glorious, Most is a vivid parable for Christ's passion, the greatest offering of love, sacrifice, hope, and forgiveness known to man. The scripture video The Neighbor is based on the parable of the Good Samaritan, a story as compelling and potentially unsettling for contemporary hearers as it was for Jews who heard it in biblical times. Set within the framework of an adversarial exchange between Jesus and a legal expert of his day, the story draws its power from a dramatic reversal of expected behavior. The Neighbor challenges viewers to see that our "neighbors," in Jesus' eyes, are not only people of our own social group, people who appeal to us, but also those "outsiders" whom we might be tempted to dislike and reject.

Symbolon: The Catholic Faith Explained - The Holy Spirit / Why Do I Need The Church?

DV 31249.1 S, YA, A 82 min.
Sri, Edward © 2014 Augustine Institute

Filmed on location in Rome, the Holy Land, Calcutta and in the Augustine Institute, a team of teachers provide a clear and comprehensive explanation of the core teaching of the Catholic Church in ten segments. The Holy Spirit and the Life of Grace: God's Divine Life within Us - One of the most profound aspects of the Catholic faith is that Christ sent his Spirit to dwell in the hearts of the baptized. Christ's Spirit within us conforms us ever more to Christ, so that we can say with St. Paul, "It is no longer I who live, but Christ who lives in me." (37 min.). Why Do I Need the Church? The Mystery of the Catholic Church - Some people say, "I'm spiritual, but not religious." or "I like Jesus, but don't need a Church." Yet one cannot fully love the King and reject his Kingdom. Jesus did not save us as isolated individuals. He calls us to enter the communion of the Church (45 min.). Note: This segment on Church begins with a negative interpretation of the motivations of non-practicing Catholics. Viewers may wish to skip through the first several minutes of part one in segment two. (Includes Participant's Guide and Leader's Guide. Program Introduction Guide available upon request.)

4.10 Recognize that we are fulfilling the paschal mystery by actively participation in the Sunday liturgy.

Altaration: The Mystery Of The Mass Revealed (3 Discs)

DV 31339.1 S, YA 140 min.
Hart, Mark © 2015 Ascension Press

This five-session series is designed to help Catholic teens to appreciate the awesome beauty and mystery of the Mass, to look forward to attending this celebration, and to participate fully. The first four sessions will powerfully show that there is more to the Mass and the priesthood than what we experience with our five senses, that the Mass is part of the Father's plan for our salvation, that there are deep mysteries being revealed in the Mass which lead us to an encounter with Jesus Christ, and that we are sent forth from Mass to respond to God's Grace and live out a mission of service. The fifth session walks through the parts of the Mass, explaining the meaning behind why we do what we do. (Includes four 20-min. sessions and one 60-min. session on DVDs, Leader's Guide, and Student Workbook)

This site has side-by-side comparisons of the texts for Eucharistic Prayers I - IV. It is a resource for those who wish to see the similarity in structure and the differences in wording or length of these prayers from the 3rd Edition of the Roman Missal. Students might consider the concept of the Paschal Mystery in the Eucharist by highlighting in different colors words and phrases that refer to Christ's life; his Passion and Death; and his Resurrection, Ascension, and living presence in our world today.

A Handshake from Heaven beautifully illustrates for children how the Eucharist allows them to hold God's hand. It will teach them that receiving Communion strengthens their relationship with God, and through this sacrament he opens the doorway into Heaven. Adults and children will find their love of the Eucharist deepening as they share this book together.
