

Saints with Super Powers craft

Print out the base and saints pictures on cardstock if possible.

Cut out the base—you can decorate the base by coloring it, or by gluing pieces of cotton balls to make the saints stand in the clouds.

Tape or glue the base together so it forms a circle.

Cut out each saint, leaving a tab below the saint.

Attach each saint by the tab to the diorama base above their “super power.” (for clues about where each saint belongs on the diorama, see the sidebar on the page with the saint’s pictures)

Once all the saints are attached, place it on your table or prayer corner and ask these special saints to pray for you!

Saints with SuperPowers

Every saint has “supernatural” power from the grace of God—living in heaven, every saint can work miracles through the authority and power of God. But some saints seem to have some extra-special abilities that are just really cool to think about! Here are six with “super powers.”

St. Francis of Assisi

St. Clare of Assisi

St. Catherine of Siena

St. Francis of Assisi—could talk to animals

St. Clare of Assisi—could see things happening far away

St. Catherine of Siena—had the wounds of Christ (but they were hidden until she died)

St. Joseph of Cupertino—could levitate (float)

St. John Vianney—could read the souls of those who approached him for Confession

St. Padre Pio—could bilocate (be in 2 places at the same time)

St. Joseph of Cupertino

St. John Vianney

St. Padre Pio

I could be in two places at the same time (bilocate)

I could read souls who came to me for Confession

I could float in the air while praying (levitate)

I had the wounds of Christ on my body (the stigmata)

I could talk to animals

Saints with Super Powers

I could see things that were happening somewhere else
