November Virtue - Generosity

This month, the children are learning about the virtue of Generosity.

Here are some reminders, and some new thoughts, about this month's virtue.

Remember from Last Week:

DEFINITION OF GENEROSITY:

Giving of oneself in a willing and cheerful manner for the good of others

GENEROSITY LOOKS LIKE:

- Spending time with someone else
- Smiling
- Thinking of others first
- Sharing with someone
- Bringing food to the poor

GENEROSITY SOUNDS LIKE:

- Would you like to play with me?
- Silence
- I will push you on the swing first.
- Would you like this?
- I gave food to the poor.

Some New Thoughts About Generosity:

THOUGHTS FROM THE CHILDREN:

In today's Virtues assembly, the students had a lot of good examples of ways to be generous, such as:

- Helping their parents make dinner
- Helping their parents watch their younger siblings
- Making sure they really listened when people were talking to them
- The 8th graders helping with the ministries at Mass this past weekend

Among the students who made contributions today were Hugh F, Evan W, and Anna P. Nice job, kids!

SCRIPTURE PERTAINING TO IT: Matthew 25:34-40

Then the King will say to those at his right hand, 'Come, O blessed of my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world; for I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me drink, I was a stranger and you welcomed me, I was naked and you clothed me, I was sick and you visited me, I was in prison and you came to me.' Then the righteous will answer him, 'Lord, when did we see thee hungry and feed thee, or thirsty and give thee drink? And when did we see thee a stranger and welcome thee, or naked and clothe thee? And when did we see thee sick or in prison and visit thee?' And the King will answer them, 'Truly, I say to you, as you did it to one of the least of these my brethren, you did it to me.'

Previous Scriptures:

John 21:3A

2 Corinthians 9:6-8

SAINT WHO LIVED IT: St. Elizabeth of Hungary

St. Elizabeth of Hungary married a young prince of Thuringia who loved her dearly. Daily, Elizabeth would take extra food and clothing from the castle and deliver them to the poor. Her kind manner and generosity shocked many people, because princesses weren't usually so kind. These people reported her actions to her husband, but he supported her works. Elizabeth provided a good example to many by her continual generosity.

Previous Saints:

St. Martin of Tours

St. Giuseppe Moscati

PRAYER:

Dear Jesus,

You shared your entire life with others. Please help me to share the gifts you've given me by: giving away extra items I have to those in need, giving my time to help anyone who needs it, and trying to do at least one act of charity or kindness each day. Help me to develop a spirit of generosity in my life. Amen.
