“SIGN OF PEACE” GESTURE AND FLU OR WINTER COLD: Because shaking hands is an American custom, parishioners concerned about possible transmission of flu or a winter cold find it difficult and uncomfortable to avoid hand-to-hand contact at the sign of peace and become anxious about offending fellow parishioners. The ritual guideline for the sign of peace states: “All make an appropriate sign of peace, according to local custom.” While shaking hands is an appropriate practice, it is not the designated or only suitable gesture for the sign of peace. A parishioner at risk for a cold because of health or age can occupy their hands with a hymnal, pair of gloves or purse, etc., nod their head in the exchange of the peace greeting and offer a smile to forestall misunderstanding or impression of unfriendliness. Most parishioners will not misinterpret another parishioner using average social graces during the sign of peace. Although hand-to-hand contact can spread a cold, anyone in reasonably good health has the necessary defense mechanisms to protect against any significant infection in the casual social contact that occurs at the sign of peace. As the sign of peace is an expression of faith in our oneness in the Lord, however, sensitivity to another’s health concern is most appropriate.

SCRIPTURE & BOOK STUDY

Women of Faith New Bible Study: Prophets - Messengers of God's Mercy. As we begin this epic year of 2020 and this new decade we are faced with a world that is in urgent need: discover the Prophets' Messages for You! If God's people had stayed close to him, there might have been no need for the prophets. Prophets proclaimed the consequences of continued sin, called people to repentance, and declared God's faithful love. In The Prophets: Messengers of God's Mercy study, presenter Thomas Smith examines who the prophets were, their role during their time, and the meaning of their messages for our own time. In this 10-session program, discover how God is constantly calling you to a deeper relationship, as well as the ways you are called to be the voice of God to others. This promises to be a very timely and exceptional study!

Study is on Tuesdays in Kramer Hall from 10:00 - 11:00 a.m. Study Guide book cost is $27. FREE child care - please let us know if you will need child care for your little ones. Please contact Jansen Center at 426-1733 to register.

All are welcome to join us beginning the week of January 13th for this new 10 week study. No fee for class. Please sign up with Tom in the Jansen Center. Classes will be held on:

Our Blessed Mother, the first disciple to follow Jesus becomes our wonderful teacher. St. Louis de Montfort's book True Devotion of Mary (TDM) holds many treasures helping us to know her well. St. John Paul II set an example for us by anchoring his life's journey having memorized True Devotion and consecrating himself to Our Mother Mary. Join us as we resume our study of this 17th century writing Wednesdays from 10:30 - Noon in Jansen Center. For more information contact Tom Smith at 426-1733, ext. 301. Note: Our Lady teaches, we come to listen and pray thus no homework necessary just an open heart to learn.
