Religion in the Republic

Despotism may govern without faith, but liberty cannot. Religion is much more necessary...in democratic republics than in any others.

How is it possible that society should escape destruction if the moral tie is not strengthened in proportion as the political tie is relaxed? And what can be done with a people who are their own masters if they are not submissive to the Deity? —Alexis de Tocqueville (1805-

ANNOUNCEMENTS

1. If you collected signatures for the Heartbeat Initiative, please remember to mail them back this week: Carolyn Crain / 5917 NE 47th St. / Vancouver, WA 98661

2. Bring it! You can drop off all your items for our famous Rummage Sale Monday-Friday, 9am-noon, at the gym. Due to the shut-down, everything we usually collect over several months we need to collect in just a few weeks! Please help make this year's sale as good, or even better, than past ones! The Rummage Sale will be Th-Sat, July 23-25, 7:30-4:30. The Bag Sale will be the following Sat., Aug. 1, 7:30-4:00.

2. Through the end of August, Fr. Oiland will be celebrating daily Mass on Monday through Thursday, instead of Tuesday through Friday. Friday Mass intentions will simply be shifted to the Monday of the same week. If you scheduled a Friday Mass and this change poses any concern to you, please call us at the office.

3. Remote Natural Family Planning classes start Sat., July 18. Couples who embrace their shared fertility as a blessing discover their communication, relationship, and love life are even better. Register at <https://register.ccli.org/search>.

4. For information on the diocesan Year of the Eucharist, visit the website: www.dioceseofspokane.org/.

5. Boot Camp for your soul! Private directed retreats at Immaculate Heart Retreat Center are always available. They can tailor retreats to match the time you have—1, 2, 3, 5, 8, or 30 days are typical—and your spiritual and emotional needs.

Funeral Masses

Florian Herda: Sat., Aug. 1, 10am; reception follows.

Dave Rausch: Thurs., Aug. 6, 11am; reception follows.

May they rest in peace.

CATHOLIC CULTURE CORNER

As we celebrate Independence Day, let's reflect on the patron saint of the United States. A patron is one who offers support or protection. Catholics are often aware of their parish's patron saint, and perhaps their namesake and confirmation patron saints. Each country also has a patron saint, and ours is Mary Immaculate.

One way to build a Catholic culture is regularly to ask the help of our patrons. For example, at the end of our prayer before meals, we can ask our saints to pray for us ("Mary Immaculate...pray for us."). Imagine the fruit for our country if Catholics throughout the U.S. regularly invoked our patron: Jesus' own Immaculate Mother!

In a special way, I invite everyone in our parish to pray with me this weekend the prayer offered at the 1959 dedication of the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception:

Most Holy Trinity: Our Father in Heaven, who chose Mary as the fairest of your daughters; Holy Spirit, who chose Mary as your Spouse; God the Son, who chose Mary as your Mother, in union with Mary we adore your majesty and acknowledge your supreme, eternal dominion and authority.

Most Holy Trinity, we put the United States of America into the hands of Mary Immaculate in order that she may present the country to you. Through her we wish to thank you for the great resources of this land and for the freedom which has been its heritage.

Through the intercession of Mary, have mercy on the Catholic Church in America. Grant us peace. Have mercy on our president and on all the officers of our government. Grant us a fruitful economy, born of justice and charity. Have mercy on capital and industry and labor. Protect the family life of the nation. Guard the precious gift of many religious vocations. Through the intercession of our Mother, have mercy on the sick, the tempted, sinners — on all who are in need.

Mary, Immaculate Virgin, our Mother, Patroness of our land, we praise you and honor you and give ourselves to you. Protect us from every harm. Pray for us, that acting always according to your will and the will of your divine Son, we may live and die pleasing to God. Amen.
