La Santa Misa

A través de los siglos, desde que el Señor resucitado ascendió a la derecha de Dios Padre hasta nuestros días, la Iglesia ha cumplido el mandato del Señor: "Hagan esto en memoria mía" (Lc 22, 19c). A la celebración de este memorial de la pasión, muerte y resurrección de nuestro Señor Jesucristo, se le ha llamado de muy diversas formas: Fracción del Pan, Cena del Señor, Eucaristía, Cena del Cordero, etc. No sólo se le ha llamado de diferentes formas, sino que también esta celebración ha ido evolucionando con el paso de tiempo. Lo que, en la era apostólica hasta los tres primeros siglos, comenzó como una celebración con oraciones espontáneas, recitadas de memoria, se fue transformando en oraciones y fórmulas escritas, al principio con pequeños libros, y más tarde con libros más completos hasta lo que hoy conocemos como Misal Romano.

En la actualidad, el término más popular para designar la celebración que el Señor nos mandó hacer en su memoria, ha pasado a ser más comúnmente usado como Misa. Se cree que esta palabra proviene de la fórmula de despedida de la Misa en latín: Ite missa est, que equivale a "Pueden ir en paz, la Misa ha terminado". Ningún término abarca en su totalidad todo el misterio, desde el lugar en que celebramos la santa Misa. Sin embargo, la Constitución sobre la sagrada Liturgia nos la define como: "sacramento de piedad, signo de la unidad, vínculo de caridad, banquete pascual, en el cual se espera la venida de Cristo, el alma se llena de gracia y se nos da una prenda de la gloria venidera" (n. 47).

Book/Media Sale Donations Needed

The third annual St. Mary Magdalene Book and Media Sale is set for Sunday, March 1st, the same day as the Knights of Columbus pancake breakfast. Like last year, we will also have a special pre-sale the Saturday before, immediately after the 4:00 Mass.

We are now accepting donations of books, music CD's, movies and other items. Please bring to church with you children's and adult paperback and hard cover books, CD's (no cassettes, please), movies (DVD's only), vinyl records, board games and jigsaw puzzles and place inside the main church doors.

We request that you do not donate encyclopedias, textbooks and dictionaries as there is no market for these items.

After the 11:00 mass each week, committee members will take all donations downstairs to the church hall and begin sorting them.

Our first two book and media sales have been very successful, netting over $1000 for the parish, increasing the K of C's breakfast attendance and bringing newcomers to our church grounds. If you are interested in helping in any way, please contact Nancy and Jack Smith at (614) 871-3248.
