THIRTIETH SUNDAY ORDINARY TIME

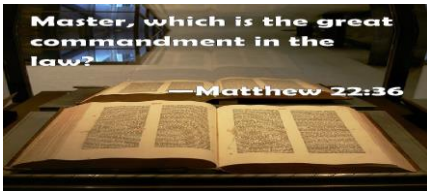

OCTOBER 25, 2020

125TH Anniversary of St. Gabriel Parish

"Thus says the Lord. 'You shall not molest or oppress an alien, for you were once aliens yourselves in the land of Egypt. You shall not wrong any widow or orphan. If ever you wrong them and they cry out to me, I will surely hear their cry. My wrath will flare up, and I will kill you with the sword, then your own wives will be widows and your children orphans... the second is like it: you shall love your neighbor as yourself."

A clear, strong teaching in the second book of the bible. The words were perhaps directed at abuses taking place, and God spoke to correct them.

From Exodus until today, God's people have served the widow, orphan and immigrant. Jesus reminds us: 'love your neighbor as yourself.'

The Next St. Gabriel Faith formation Sessions

All Men and Women are called to be Saints

When we were young and visited the church, we saw statues of the Blessed Mother and St. Joseph and the patron saints of our parish. Our parents and teachers taught us about these holy men and women. In learning about them and other saints, we might have had some of the same experiences the saints had and so we could connect with them. This could be because of something in their life or perhaps their struggles spoke to us.

The beauty of the saints is that we can see the drama of the human soul being played out in so many ways. It could be how they overcame difficulties, how they chose to help other people, or perhaps the experiences they had that led them to follow Jesus.

Saints we may feel connected to could be Saint Anthony for finding things, Saint Rita for impossible situations or Saint Joseph, Patron of a Happy Death & helper to sell our house.

During November, after the feast of All Saints, we are going to have Faith Formation sessions about three great Reformers. On November 4, St. Thomas More, November 11, St. Theresa of Avila and on November 18, St. Charles Borromeo, 7:00-8:00 PM. All three of these saints, made the choice to follow Christ, during a very difficult time in the church

We would like to introduce you to these great saints that you might want to stay friends with or at least learn something from them to assist you on your journey towards our heavenly home.

We hope you will travel with us as together as we explore some ordinary people and witness their struggles, sense of humor and their tremendous faith in God.

What unites all these Saints WITH US is their YES to God!
