

THIRTY-SECOND SUNDAY
ORDINARY TIME
NOVEMBER 8, 2020

Believe in Jesus

"We do not want you to be unaware, brothers and sisters, about those who have fallen asleep, so that you may not grieve like the rest, who have no hope. For if we believe that Jesus died and rose, so too will God, through Jesus, bring with him those who have fallen asleep... Therefore, stay awake, for you know neither the day nor the hour."

In our tradition, we remember this month the holy souls. We profess our part in the communion of saints. We direct our prayer to those awaiting entrance into glory and those who live with the Lord. We who live our faith, pray for others and ask the saints to intercede for us.

The events of the past year are a 'wake up call' to live the life of grace, seek forgiveness in the Sacrament of Reconciliation and the Eucharist, to put our lives in order.

We never know the day nor the hour when we will meet the Lord! Act upon the word today.

Prepare to meet the Lord

OUR LIVES WITH THE SAINTS

We are very excited about our course on The Saints which begins this Wednesday, November 4th at 7:00 PM. Please email rectory@stgabes.or to register

THE FIRST WOMEN DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH

On November 11, we will look at the life of St. Theresa of Avila, who was nobly-born, wealthy, captivating and headstrong. Teresa, an unlikely candidate to incorporate resilient works of change, was chosen by God to do just that. After many years of complacent living in a fashionable convent, Theresa was drawn into a loving embrace of God, and through His inspiration she learned what a life more pleasing to God would be.

THE GOOD SHEPHERD-PATRON OF PRIESTS

On November 18, we will talk about St. Charles Borromeo, who was one of the wealthiest and most powerful men in all of Rome. Yet he chose the extraordinary challenge of reforming the enormous Archdiocese of Milan to the pampered life of a Renaissance prince and willingly spent himself in the service of his flock.

Many people look upon saints as patrons, as someone they would ask for help, while others might look upon a saint as a companion, one to look up to and ask for guidance. When you get to know these saints better, you can decide if you would ask them for help, hope to imitate them or just get to know them better.

Please join us at the rectory at 7:00 PM
