Eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time

February 26, 2017

Dear parishioners,

We've made another turn of the calendar and are standing at the door of Lent again. I know this season takes some preparation—thoughtfully choosing our Lenten practices, planning for meatless meals for Ash Wednesday and the Fridays of Lent, setting aside a time for prayer and reflection. You can't do it all on Ash Wednesday! No doubt most of you are working on your plan already.

This season was originally begun to support those preparing for baptism. We are blessed this year with two catechumens—Mark Willis and Robert Flores. This practice is still extremely relevant. They are taking an enormous step in their lives. They are committing to a life of witness, fidelity, and service. They deserve our prayers and support!

The season is also a time when we ourselves prepare to renew our own baptismal commitment at the Easter Vigil. Lent is a season to examine our own lives to see where we are failing or where we are lukewarm in our commitment to our baptismal promises. It's not just 40 days of "doing" some penance. Lent ought to change our hearts.

I hold you all in my heart and in my prayers that these next weeks will be a time of growth and blessing.

Sister Carol
