33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

November 19, 2017

Dear parishioners,

This is the week of Thanksgiving! What is uppermost in our minds? A big meal? Free days? The Blaze of Lights? Getting our Christmas tree decorated? Football? Black Friday shopping?

It's easy to be distracted from the original purpose of the holiday. I don't need to tell you that the pilgrims gathered with their Indian friends to celebrate that they were alive! With the help of their friends the Indians, the pilgrims had made it through a terrifying year. So the original intent of that first Thanksgiving (even though it wasn't called that) was gratitude.

George Washington proclaimed a national day of thanksgiving in 1789, the year the U.S Constitution was ratified. Abraham Lincoln proclaimed Thanksgiving a national day of thanksgiving in 1864, in the heat of the Civil War when our country was torn apart in bloody conflict over states' rights and over slavery.

Perhaps our day of Thanksgiving will not be surrounded by such noteworthy or heart-rending events. Its intent, however, remains the same. It is a day when each of us is called upon to give thanks to God for the gracious goodness that comes to us in so many every single day.

I hope each of us makes a very conscious effort to make giving God thanks our first priority this week.
