The Epiphany of the Lord La Epifanía del Señor

Is 60:1-6; Ps 72:1-2,7-8,10-13
Eph 3:2-3a,5-6; Mt 2:1-12

Mt 2:1-12

When Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea, in the days of King Herod, behold, magi from the east arrived in Jerusalem, saying, "Where is the newborn king of the Jews? We saw his star at its rising and have come to do him homage." When King Herod heard this, he was greatly troubled, and all Jerusalem with him. Assembling all the chief priests and the scribes of the people, He inquired of them where the Christ was to be born. They said to him, "In Bethlehem of Judea, for thus it has been written through the prophet: And you, Bethlehem, land of Judah, are by no means least among the rulers of Judah; since from you shall come a ruler, who is to shepherd my people Israel." Then Herod called the magi secretly and ascertained from them the time of the star's appearance. He sent them to Bethlehem and said, "Go and search diligently for the child. When you have found him, bring me word, that I too may go and do him homage."

After their audience with the king they set out.

And behold, the star that they had seen at its rising preceded them, until it came and stopped over the place where the child was. They were overjoyed at seeing the star, and on entering the house they saw the child with Mary his mother. They prostrated themselves and did him homage. Then they opened their treasures and offered him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh. And having been warned in a dream not to return to Herod, they departed for their country by another way.

Mt 2:1-12

Jesús nació en Belén de Judá, en tiempos del rey Herodes. Unos magos de oriente llegaron entonces a Jerusalén y preguntaron: "¿Dónde está el rey de los judíos que acaba de nacer? Porque vimos surgir su estrella y hemos venido a adorarlo". Al enterarse de esto, el rey Herodes se sobresaltó y toda Jerusalén con él. Convocó entonces a los sumos sacerdotes y a los escribas del pueblo y les preguntó dónde tenía que nacer el Mesías. Ellos le contestaron: "En Belén de Judá, porque así lo ha escrito el profeta: Y tú, Belén, tierra de Judá, no eres en manera alguna la menor entre las ciudades ilustres de Judá, pues de ti saldrá un jefe, que será el pastor de mi pueblo, Israel". Entonces Herodes llamó en secreto a los magos, para que le precisaran el tiempo en que se les había aparecido la estrella y los mandó a Belén, diciéndoles: "Vayan a averiguar cuidadosamente qué hay de ese niño y, cuando lo encuentren, avísenme para que yo también vaya a adorarlo". Después de oír al rey, los magos se pusieron en camino, y de pronto la estrella que habían visto surgir, comenzó a guiarlos, hasta que se detuvo encima de donde estaba el niño. Al ver de nuevo la estrella, se llenaron de inmensa alegría. Entraron en la casa y vieron al niño con María, su madre, y postrándose, lo adoraron. Después, abriendo sus cofres, le ofrecieron regalos: oro, incienso y mirra. Advertidos durante el sueño de que no volvieran a Herodes, regresaron a su tierra por otro camino.

The Baptism of the Lord El Bautismo del Señor

Is 42:1-4,6-7; Ps 29:1-4,3,9-10
Acts 10:34-38; Mt 3:13-17

Mt 3:13-17

Jesus came from Galilee to John at the Jordan to be baptized by him. John tried to prevent him, saying, "I need to be baptized by you, and yet you are coming to me?" Jesus said to him in reply, "Allow it now, for thus it is fitting for us to fulfill all righteousness." Then he allowed him. After Jesus was baptized, he came up from the water and behold, the heavens were opened for him, and he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove and coming upon him. And a voice came from the heavens, saying, "This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased."

Mt 3:13-17

Jesús vino de Galilea a Juan en el Jordán para ser bautizado por él Juan trató de evitarlo, diciendo: "Necesito ser bautizado por ti, ¿Y sin embargo vienes a mí? Jesús le respondió: "Permítelo ahora, porque así nos conviene para cumplir toda justicia ". Luego lo permitió. Después de que Jesús fue bautizado, salió del agua y he aquí los cielos fueron abiertos para él, y vio al Espíritu de Dios descender como una paloma y viniendo sobre él. Y vino una voz del cielo que decía: "Este es mi Hijo amado, con quien estoy muy satisfecho".

Pastor's Corner
Fr. M. Uhlenkott

By now it's a sure bet that most Christmas lights are being placed back in their boxes; Christmas carols have long stopped playing on the radio and in homes; giant Santa Claus's and his reindeer and Christmas trees have been taken out of the big department stores, and most likely most of the world will be back to the non Christmas grind by Jan 2, if not earlier. I hope this does not describe you. Remember that for us Catholics, the Christmas season only begins on Christmas Eve (indeed we were well preparing for the coming of Christ in anxious yearning during the four weeks of advent) and we are blessed to celebrate Christ's incarnation and coming in the flesh from Christmas Eve all the way through January 12 (some might even argue that we can celebrate Christmas through Feb 2, the Feast of the Presentation of the Lord). I hope you can in some way make this a reality in your home and family. If at all possible, try to celebrate the full Christmas season by maybe attending more daily Masses (I personally enjoy the scriptures and liturgies of the Christmas season), or by doing something special in your home to continue the celebration of Christ's birth! A very blessed and merry Christmas season to all of you!

Por ahora es una apuesta segura que la mayoría de las luces navideñas se vuelven a colocar en sus cajas; los villancicos han dejado de sonar en la radio y en los hogares; el gigante Santa Claus y sus renos y los árboles de Navidad han sido sacados de los grandes almacenes, y lo más probable es que la mayor parte del mundo vuelva a la rutina no navideña por el 2 de enero, si no antes. Espero que esto no te describa. Recuerde que para nosotros los católicos, la tiempo navideño solo comienza en la víspera de Navidad (de hecho, nos estábamos preparando bien para la venida de Cristo con ansiosa anhelo durante las cuatro semanas de adviento) y tenemos la bendición de celebrar la encarnación de Cristo y venida en Navidad hasta el 12 de enero. Espero que de alguna manera puedas hacer esto realidad en tu hogar y familia. Si es posible, trate de celebrar el tiempo navideño completo tal vez asistiendo a más misas diarias (personalmente disfruto las escrituras y las liturgias del tiempo navideña), o haciendo algo especial en su hogar para continuar la celebración del nacimiento de Cristo. ¡Una muy feliz navidad para todos ustedes!
