Third Sunday of Lent
Tercer Domingo de Cuaresma
Ex 17:3-7; Ps 95:1-2,6-9; Rom 5:1-2,5-8
Jn 4:5-42 or 4:5-15,19b-26,39a,40-42

Jn 4:5-15, 19b-26, 39a, 40-42

Jesus came to a town of Samaria called Sychar, near the plot of land that Jacob had given to his son Joseph. Jacob's well was there. Jesus, tired from his journey, sat down there at the well.

It was about noon.

A woman of Samaria came to draw water. Jesus said to her, "Give me a drink." His disciples had gone into the town to buy food. The Samaritan woman said to him, "How can you, a Jew, ask me, a Samaritan woman, for a drink?"

—For Jews use nothing in common with Samaritans.

Jesus answered and said to her, "If you knew the gift of God and who is saying to you, 'Give me a drink,' you would have asked him and he would have given you living water." The woman said to him, "Sir, you do not even have a bucket and the cistern is deep; where then can you get this living water? Are you greater than our father Jacob, who gave us this cistern and drank from it himself with his children and his flocks?" Jesus answered and said to her, "Everyone who drinks this water will be thirsty again; but whoever drinks the water I shall give will never thirst; the water I shall give will become in him a spring of water welling up to eternal life." The woman said to him, "Sir, give me this water, so that I may not be thirsty or have to keep coming here to draw water.

"I can see that you are a prophet. Our ancestors worshiped on this mountain; but you people say that the place to worship is in Jerusalem." Jesus said to her, "Believe me, woman, the hour is coming when you will worship the Father neither on this mountain nor in Jerusalem. You people worship what you do not understand; we worship what we understand, because salvation is from the Jews. But the hour is coming, and is now here, when true worshipers will worship the Father in Spirit and truth; and indeed the Father seeks such people to worship him. God is Spirit, and those who worship him must worship in Spirit and truth." The woman said to him, "I know that the Messiah is coming, the one called the Christ; when he comes, he will tell us everything." Jesus said to her, "I am he, the one who is speaking with you."

Many of the Samaritans of that town began to believe in him. When the Samaritans came to him, they invited him to stay with them; and he stayed there two days. Many more began to believe in him because of his word, and they said to the woman, "We no longer believe because of your word; for we have heard for ourselves, and we know that this is truly the savior of the world."

Pastor's Corner
Fr. M. Uhlenkott

Although you may have already heard by now, I would like to tell you personally (well, as personal as a letter in the bulletin can be) that I am at home with my parents. Since early February my dad has been receiving diagnoses of some form of fast-growing tumor, and in the weeks following, the more we've been hearing, the worse the prognosis becomes. So I decided to take some time to be with dad before he begins any treatment for this aggressive form of cancer. Given the situation, everything is a little tentative, but I will probably be away for another week or maybe two.

I really hope to be back to our parish before Easter. I also want you to know that I wanted to personally help defray the costs of finding priests to cover for my absence so as not to cost the parish an undue burden. Furthermore, I thank all those who are helping in numerous ways to make my time away more feasible. I will continue to beg your patience as I foresee that I will continue to be absent off and on throughout the coming months. Thank you for your understanding. And if you can spare an extra moment or two, I would appreciate very much your prayers for my dad. God bless you all!

Aunque es posible que ya lo hayan escuchado, me gustaría decirles personalmente (bueno, tan personal como puede ser una carta en el boletín) que estoy en casa con mis padres. Desde principios de febrero, mi padre ha estado recibiendo diagnósticos de alguna forma de tumor de rápido crecimiento, y en las semanas siguientes, cuanto más hemos estado escuchando, peor es el pronóstico. Así que decidí tomarme un tiempo para estar con mi papá antes de que comience cualquier tratamiento para esta forma agresiva de cáncer. Dada la situación, todo es un poco tentativo, pero probablemente estaré fuera por otra semana o tal vez dos.

Realmente espero volver a nuestra parroquia antes de Pascua. También quiero que sepas que quería ayudar personalmente a sufragar los costos de encontrar sacerdotes para cubrir mi ausencia y no costar a la parroquia una carga excesiva. Además, agradezco a todos los que están ayudando de muchas maneras para que mi tiempo fuera más posible. Continuaré pidiendo su paciencia mientras preveo que continuaré ausente de vez en cuando durante los próximos meses. Gracias por su comprensión. Y si pueden dedicar un momento extra o dos, agradecería mucho sus oraciones por mi padre. ¡Dios los bendiga a todos!
