Watch and RCIA Series Online

Here is the YouTube Channel for Our Lady of Good Council Parish. The pastor, Fr. John Riccardo, is very well known and respected for his straightforward and applicable presentation of the essential Catholic beliefs. Several years of the Our Lady of Good Council Parish's in-house RCIA class series were recorded and posted on YouTube. The person who needs to balance the convenience of access to online materials with the desire for a more local (less scripted) style of presentation, may find these YouTube videos most helpful.
