Dear Parishioners,

This past week my prayer has been one of deep gratitude for many things. As Fr. Joseph and I are settling in, we have each found such goodness and generosity in the holy people of God here in Lamoille County. Perhaps you've heard the term, "Minnesota nice." To be honest, I think there is something even more to be said for Vermont hospitality.

Between folks stopping by to lend a hand, or to just "check-in" on us, asking if there is anything we might need, or inviting Fr. Joseph or myself out for a meal, we have both been so welcomed and made to feel right at home here...and for that, we both thank you. Gratitude has filled my prayer also in how blessed we are to be surrounded by such natural beauty. My sister and youngest niece visited me recently and both commented on how blessed I am to live in such a beautiful place. Created beauty is one of the ways we encounter God, the all beautiful One, as it is intended to open us up even more to the mystery of God - Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

In the Gospel this Sunday, Jesus teaches His disciples about prayer, which is another way of teaching us how to be in relationship with God. Allowing the created beauty around us to open our hearts even more to the uncreated beauty of God is just one way prayer deepens our relationship with God. I leave with this quote from Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI for your prayer this week:

"Indeed beauty is one of mankind's greatest needs; it is the root from which the branches of our peace and the fruits of our hope come forth. Beauty also reveals God, because, like Him, a work of beauty is pure gratuity; it calls us to freedom and draws us away from selfishness."

God bless you and have a beautiful week!

With Mary

In Christ,

Fr. Jon
