Dear Parishioners,
A reminder to all parishioners that confessions are being held on FRIDAYS during Lent from 5-6pm at Most Holy Name (Stations to follow) and Blessed Sacrament (Stations begin at 430pm).

This week brings two iconic cultural saints into our Lenten celebration – St. Patrick for the Irish (even though he was English), and St. Joseph for the Italians and French Canadians (even though he was Jewish). What’s beautiful about being Catholic is that when a saint is canonized by the universal Church, they belong to all of us!

In the 5th century when Patrick was 16, he was not an active believer in Jesus Christ. Pirates from Ireland captured the boy, took him as a slave, and brought him back to Ireland where he lived for 6 years. He accounts that these were formational years because it was in captivity, working as a slave-shepherd, that he grew spiritually. Through prayer he deepened his relationship with God, was led to repent of his sins and convert to Christianity. Thus began his unexpected journey in following and serving the Lord.

St. Joseph was betrothed to Mary, and preparing to wed her found out some rather unexpected news: she was with child from the Holy Spirit. Talk about a change in plans! Being virtuous and righteous, he obediently followed the direction of the angel to care for Mary, protect and provide for her...which he did. His life became one that led him in a totally different direction than he was expecting, and as the foster-father of the Son of God, the Lord revealed Joseph’s mission.

This third week of Lent engages us with the reality that to take our call to holiness seriously means to surrender our lives to the Lord’s will for our lives. It means not being in control, but trustingly giving control over to the One who is Lord of all. St. Patrick and St. Joseph surrendered their plans in order to follow God on a great adventure of faith, and it made them who they became. What is God asking you to surrender to Him this week that you may do the same? God bless you!

With Mary, In Christ, Fr. Jon
