Dear Parishioners,

I am grateful to God for His numerous blessings in our lives; for the gifts of life, health, security, shelter and food on our tables. There are many things we should be grateful to God for, when we compare our situations with others. Recently a poor girl somewhere in Africa asked me for help that is not up to $10, to help her family. I was sober for a while thinking of the many times I have not been thankful to God enough, because I think God has not done enough for me. It is on this note that I want us to reflect on leaving things behind in order to be able to follow Jesus.

He did not promise that life will be easy
He only promised that He will always be there at ease
He did hide the thorns from us
He promised to heal our wounds

Do not let anything be an obstacle on your way in life
Every obstacle we face in life is meant to be behind
Just as Peter was sent to be behind
So are we to send behind the obstacles of life.

If we do not leave hatred behind to embrace love
We cannot follow Him
If we find it hard to show compassion to those in need of love
We cannot follow Him

He has called us to come behind Him
So that He will go before us
When we follow behind Him
Every obstacle in life will not be insurmountable for us.

Let us pray for those who have lost their peace this period that they may find peace. By leaving behind whatever is robbing us of our peace in order to come to Jesus, we will find true joy. This joy can only be found by following Jesus. God bless you!

Yours in Christ, Fr. Joseph
