Sunday Scripture Verses

Isaiah 43:16-21; Psalm 126:1-2, 2-3, 4-5, 6;
 Philippians 3:8-14; John 8:1-11

Jesus went to the Mount of Olives. But early in the morning he arrived again in the temple area, and all the people started coming to him, and he sat down and taught them. Then the scribes and the Pharisees brought a woman who had been caught in adultery and made her stand in the middle. They said to him, "Teacher, this woman was caught in the very act of committing adultery. Now in the law, Moses commanded us to stone such women. So what do you say?" They said this to test him, so that they could have some charge to bring against him. Jesus bent down and began to write on the ground with his finger. But when they continued asking him, he straightened up and said to them, "Let the one among you who is without sin be the first to throw a stone at her." Again he bent down and wrote on the ground. And in response, they went away one by one, beginning with the elders. So he was left alone with the woman before him. Then Jesus straightened up and said to her, "Woman, where are they? Has no one condemned you?" She replied, "No one, sir." Then Jesus said, "Neither do I condemn you. Go, and from now on do not sin any more."

A Note from the Cemetery

In our preparation for the upcoming Easter season, we ask that you would please remove all Christmas wreaths, sprays, trees, etc. Feel free to add any Easter flower pots; however, the water will not be turned on until Memorial Day weekend. Thank you!

Knights of Columbus Breakfast

Come join the K of C for breakfast on Sunday, April 14th. The Knights will be serving the usual fair in the newly renovated St. Brigid's Kitchen. Easy access, good food, and fellowship await your arrival.

Bible Study Group on Galatians

Want to learn more about how the Church began? Come to the Bible Study on Tuesday evenings from 6:00-7:15 in the student center. We are reading St. Paul's letter to the Galatians. "There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free man, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus." Gal 3:28

Rice Bowl 2019: Encounter Ona

We encounter Ona in Gaza, where despite lack of economic opportunity, people pursue their dreams by building businesses to better their lives. How do your daily choices impact others throughout the world? How can your choices support the dignity of workers? Visit crsricebowl.org for more information.

Lenten Retreat for Parish Volunteers

The Diocesan Department of Evangelization & Catechesis is offering a Lenten retreat day for anyone who works for or volunteers in the parish.

April 10th, St. Anthony, White River Junction

To register, please contact Deacon Phil Lawson at plawson@vermontcatholic.org.

2019-2020 Enrollment has begun at Saint Michael Catholic School

Good schools are like good shoes, they fit comfortably, support firmly and take you securely to your goals. This spring let Saint Michael Catholic School help you find a good fit for your student. We invite you to meet our faculty and staff, tour the building, sit in on a class, experience our classical curriculum, speak with our long-time parents - or our brand new ones! Our school is here to support the families of the Saint Michael parish. Please bring your wish list and let's see if SMS is a good fit for your family! Call Lindsay O'Neil at 802-254-6320.

A Pilgrimage to Greece, Patmos, Ephesus Oct. 11-21, 2019

Join us on a spiritual journey to many towns of the New Testament where St. Paul first spread the Good News. Also visit Patmos where St. John wrote Revelations and Mary's House in Ephesus. Included is a three-day cruise to the Greek Isles. Daily Mass will take place. The cost is $4199. For more info., please contact Helen Shea Murphy at 413-824-8733 or helensheamurphy@verizon.net. View the website at www.pilgrimages.com/helensheamurphy.

Stations & Soup

Please join us on Friday night for Stations and Soup at 5:30PM followed by soup provided by St. Brigid's Kitchen & Pantry at 6PM.

Spring into The Great Books Group!

Spring has finally sprung and it is time to get active! Do you like to read? Do you enjoy good company and good conversation? Are you a lifetime learner? If so, come join us next Tuesday, April 9th from 7- 8:30PM at St. Michael's Catholic School. This week the Great Books Group will be starting Oedipus Rex, a classic Greek drama by the playwright Sophocles. The Great Books Group is an adult reading group that offers adults in the Saint Michael school and parish communities an opportunity to enjoy and be enriched by the great literature of western civilization. The GBG follows a course of readings that roughly coincides with the reading lists in the classical core curriculum followed by high school students at St. Michael Catholic School. There is no cost or obligation to join the group.

Open House

New to the region, Thomas Aquinas College will hold an Open House at its campus in Northfield, MA on Sunday, April 7. The event will begin with Mass at 1:30PM, after which the Admissions department will offer a tour of the grounds. Following the tour, President Michael F. McLean will speak briefly about the College and its plans in New England, and there will be a panel discussion featuring alumni, parents and an incoming member of the New England faculty. Refreshments will be served immediately afterward, at 4:15PM. Please see thomasaquinas.edu/OpenHouse NE to RSVP. Questions? Contact Admissions at jpady@thomasaquinas.edu or 805-421-8304.

Our Lady of Czestochowa Parish

Sundays in Lent at 2PM in Turners Falls, MA

Make Gorzkie Zale, the Polish lamentations, part of your Lent this year. A short meditation is being offered each week to help us understand more deeply what it means to offer reparation for sin:

April 7 Reparation & the Joyful Life

April 14 Reparation & the Passion
