Divine Mercy Novena

Pray the nine-day Divine Mercy Novena, beginning Good Friday, April 10th and ending on April 18th, the weekend of Divine Mercy Sunday. Divine Mercy Sunday is a feast of mercy instituted by Pope St. John Paul II as a hope for humanity, and will be celebrated throughout the universal church on April 19th.

Requiescat in pace: Linda DuCharme

“Eternal rest grant unto her, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon her. May the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace.”

Dear Friends,

Have you noticed that things have changed? The birds are chattering, the flowers are popping and the weather is warming. These are changes, but they are expected. Not celebrating Mass publicly and not putting out the palms for the faithful to take to their homes, these are changes, but not good ones.

We have a tough time ahead, but we have had tough times before and this too will pass. Thank you, thank you, thank you for continuing to contribute to your parish. We will be back, and I, for one, can’t wait!

Have you been in your house enough? Warm weather is coming so get outside walking! When I walk, I’m almost always praying. The rosary on the morning walk, prayers for you folks throughout the day, and the Divine Mercy Chaplet on my evening stroll. As I walk around, I believe I bring God with me through conversing with Him in prayer. The Father, Son and Holy Spirit have been a lot of places lately!! Try inviting him along with you.

Please ask God in prayer to rid our Country and world of this mess. Pray for me as I pray for you.

Fr. Justin
