Holy Saturday at 8PM      Easter Sunday at 10:30AM

Dear Friends,

As we face the end of Happy Lent and head into a Glorious Easter, I am a little disappointed in my Lenten penances. Maybe you are strong, but I am weak. I stumble. I fall. But I have a Savior who lived like I do -- who suffered and died. The story, though, only begins with His death.

Hopefully you have looked at a crucifix recently. With all this COVID 19 mess, I have determined that Jesus is a lot tougher than me. My complaints regarding our confinement, social separation, masks and end of public celebrations of Sacraments is nothing like Jesus' public trial, scourging, crowning with thorns, imprisonment, carrying of the Cross through the crowds, being nailed to the Cross and laid in someone else's tomb -- all in front of His Mother.

With His human nature sacrificed, His divine nature raises. His human nature from the tomb gives hope to His fledgling Church. And His Spirit brings all to completion. Hope, my folks, is everything -- unstoppable and infinitely abundant. Jesus has our backs because He is pushing us to His glory for us to share with Him. Alleluia! He is risen! Alleluia!

Father Justin

On behalf of the Rectory staff and myself, we wish you all the blessings of the Easter season although this Easter is a very difficult one for all of us. I want to thank you for your generous donations for our Easter flowers you have given in memory or in honor of your loved ones.
