St. Brigid's will be giving away food this Saturday, May 9th from 5-6PM. Please let people know.

Dear Friends,

Alleluia, praise the Lord!

I was able to enter an eldercare home today and bring the sacraments to one of our aging population! Following every directive that I was given, I was able to celebrate two sacraments and bestow a third on a very joyous recipient. God was with us and filled her failing body and soul with His grace. As a priest, I was able to serve a very wonderful parishioner. Things are looking up my friends!!

During our separation, I am very pleased by your continued support of our parish! During these very trying times, you have continued to allow us to remain active and here for you as much as we can be. Our cemetery is growing grass, and I hope we can all gather at the cemetery on Memorial Day! Our School is doing their best under lock down. Without your constant help, I not sure what we would do. As you can imagine, St. Brigid has been working well helping the neediest in our community.

It looks like we are facing more time with our doors locked. Please know I'm praying for all of you and ask you to continue praying for each other and our whole nation and world!

Fr. Justin
