Scripture Readings

Jeremiah 20:10-13; Psalm 69:8-10, 14, 17, 33-35; Romans 5:12-15; Matthew 10:26-33

Jesus said to the Twelve: "Fear no one. Nothing is concealed that will not be revealed, nor secret that will not be known. What I say to you in the darkness, speak in the light; what you hear whispered, proclaim on the housetops. And do not be afraid of those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul; rather, be afraid of the one who can destroy both soul and body in Gehenna. Are not two sparrows sold for a small coin? Yet not one of them falls to the ground without your Father's knowledge. Even all the hairs of your head are counted. So do not be afraid; you are worth more than many sparrows. Everyone who acknowledges me before others I will acknowledge before my heavenly Father. But whoever denies me before others, I will deny before my heavenly Father."

Prayer for Priests

Lord Jesus Christ, eternal High Priest, you offered yourself to the Father on the altar of the Cross and through the outpouring of the Holy Spirit gave your priestly people a share in your redeeming sacrifice. Hear our prayer for the sanctification of our priests. Grant that all who are ordained to the ministerial priesthood may be ever more conformed to you, the divine Master. Through the prayers of the Blessed Virgin Mary, your Mother and ours, draw all priests and the flocks entrusted to their care to the fullness of eternal life where you live and reign with the Father and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Receiving Communion in the Time of COVID-19

Many things about our lives have changed in the time of COVID-19, and one of them is how to receive our Lord in the Eucharist. During this time, the bishop has asked that people maintain the six-foot distancing protocol and continue to wear their mask in the line for communion. He has also asked that people wear their mask when they receive the Eucharist in the palm of their hand and to wait until they step aside (at least six feet from the priest) before removing the mask, consuming the host, and replacing the mask.

Bishop Coyne has restricted the reception of communion to the hand only, following the example of the Diocese of Rome in response to the COVID-19 pandemic. Receiving communion on the hand while wearing a mask should reduce the chance of the virus spreading, which is why Bishop Coyne has asked us to receive communion in this way. He has implemented this and other measures to help prevent the spread of the virus and keep people safe as they worship our Lord. Though many still desire to receive our Lord on the tongue, this is an opportunity to practice humility and obedience, which is very pleasing to God. Obedience is an essential way in which we take up our cross and follow after Christ. Through obedience to the Church and the legitimate mandates of those whom God has appointed to govern her, we are able to grow closer to Christ by echoing his words, "not my will, but Yours be done."

Ordination to the Transitional Diaconate

Bishop Coyne has decided that the Ordination for Robert Murphy will take place on Friday, July 24, 2020 at 1PM at Sacred Heart/St. Francis de Sales in Bennington, VT. Efforts are being made to live-stream the event for those unable to attend in person. More details will be forthcoming in the weeks ahead.

Do Not Be Afraid!

There is no reason to be afraid. Our Lord Jesus is watching over us very closely. He knows each intricate detail of our lives. Nothing about us is unknown to Him, not even the number of hairs on our heads. He has a plan for us each day – all of the sufferings and all of the joys are meant to bring us into closer union with Him. All we need to do is open up our hearts to receive all that He wants to give us. So come to Him this day, with attention and love. Wait with expectation for His loving presence to visit your soul. And do not be afraid!
