

THE THIRTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
NOVEMBER 7, 2021
NOVEMBER- MONTH OF ALL SOULS

"If we believe that Heaven is the home of absolute purity and perfection, that nothing which is in any way defiled can pass its gates, if we believe hell to be the prison house of those who die in grievous sin...we must admit the existence of a middle state for those who are not pure enough to see God face to face, and yet have not deserved eternal banishment from Him. To deny this consequence would be to lower our idea of Heaven, until it ceased to be a motive for our hopes and longings, or to create a hell so cruelly unjust as to be unreasonable and impossible." ~Fr. Raphael Moss, O.P.
