Pilgrimage to St. Joseph Cathedral: As part of their preparation for Confirmation, thirteen students from St. Patrick's, along with students from other parishes in our diocese, participated in the Youth Pilgrimage held at St. Joseph Cathedral on Saturday, November 16. This retreat day afforded them an opportunity to meet and interact with Bishop Coyne and learn more about the history of the Catholic Church in Vermont. It included talks, an opportunity for prayer and confession, a tour of the cathedral and ended with the 4:00 pm. Vigil Mass celebrated by the bishop. They were accompanied by their catechists, Alfonso Capone and Jennifer Archambault.

Word of Life

There can be no true democracy without recognition of every person's dignity and without respect for his or her rights. Nor can there be true peace unless life is defended and promoted.

Worldwide Marriage Encounter

By your perseverance you will secure your lives. Show perseverance in your marriage by attending a Worldwide Marriage Encounter Weekend. Call John and Diane Forcier at 802-657-3083.

Promise to Protect Website: The Diocese of Burlington is committed to supporting and caring for all survivors of abuse and to making sure this never happens again. As has been the case for the past 16 years, I, along with the clergy, staff and volunteers of the Diocese, will continue to work to ensure safe environments for all God's people especially children, youth and vulnerable people in which no form of harassment, sexual or otherwise, is tolerated, Bishop Coyne said. A website has been created and will be updated continuously to ensure that the Diocese is transparent about the handling, prevention, and response to the sexual abuse of minors. The website is vermontcatholic.org/promise.

Catholic Campaign for Human Development:

Next week our special collection will support the Catholic Campaign for Human Development. More than 46 million people in the United States live in poverty today. This collection supports programs that empower people to identify and address obstacles as they work to make permanent and positive changes for their communities. Please prayerfully consider how you can support this collection. Learn more about the Catholic Campaign for Human Development at www.usccb.org/cchd/collection.

Meals on Wheels: Age Well is a nonprofit organization and the largest Meals on Wheels provider in Vermont. They are presently facing a critical shortage of volunteers in Franklin County. For more information, please contact Laura Need at lneed@agewellvt.org or 802-662-5254. Deliver a meal and impact a life!
