Readings

Sunday, March 29, 2020

Ezekiel 37:12-14

Psalms 130:1-2, 3-4, 5-6, 7-8

Romans 8:8-11

John 11:1-45

Pope Francis has composed a new prayer imploring the intercession Of Our Lady for protection against the Covid-19 Coronavirus.

O Mary, you shine continuously on our journey as a sign of salvation and hope. We entrust ourselves to you, Health of the Sick. At the foot of the Cross you participated in Jesus' pain, with steadfast faith. You, Salvation of the Roman people, know what we need. We are certain that you will provide, so that, as you did at Cana of Galilee, joy and feasting might return after this moment of trial. Help us, Mother of Divine Love, to conform ourselves to the Father's will and to do what Jesus tells us: He who took our suffering upon Himself, and bore our sorrows to bring us, through the Cross, the joy of the Resurrection. Amen. We see refuge under your protection, O Holy Mother of God. Do not despise our pleas - we who are put to the test - and deliver us from every danger, O glorious and blessed Virgin.

All Masses Suspended Until Further Notice

Bishop Wack will give updates on the COVID19 virus weekly. You can view his video at: <https://vimeo.com/400688373>

At Holy Name of Jesus we have cancelled all meetings and gatherings on campus. Our Hall, Parish Life Center (PLC) and RE building are closed until further notice. We will continue with Eucharistic Adoration on Fridays, beginning at 8:30 a.m. going through the night until Saturday at 4:30 p.m. The chapel will remain available, by entering the code, for those who wish to pray (the code is available by calling the office). The parish staff will keep office hours but the administrative doors will be locked. We will be answering emails, phone calls, and returning phone messages. We are concerned for everyone's health and safety and our goal is to keep the lines of communications open.

While we are unable to celebrate Mass together Father Steve will distribute communion 'drive through style' in front of the church on Sunday from 11 a.m. - 12 p.m. (noon). Before coming to communion Father is encouraging us to stream/watch the Mass from Holy Name of Jesus' facebook page or watch a Mass from another site or reflect on the Word of the day. Sunday's Mass will be streamed at 8 a.m. Father will stream daily Mass at 8 a.m.

How to donate during this challenging time:

- Drop off envelopes with the minister you receive communion from on Sunday.
- Mail your envelopes to the parish office at 1200 Valparaiso Blvd., Niceville, FL. 32578
- Please consider an online giving option on our parish website holynamechurch.org and click on the Give button.

Please keep our Bishop, our priests and the deacons of our diocese in your prayers. We continue to pray for you and the needs of our community. Please call the parish office at 678-7813 (during business hours) or 678-7813 x113 (after hours) if you need an emergency Anointing of the Sick.

Vatican Grants Emergency Plenary Indulgence for Divine Mercy Chaplet

The Vatican put out a statement on March 20, 2020, that states, "Because of the pandemic, anyone who, with "the will to fulfil the usual *conditions as soon as possible," recites the Divine Mercy Chaplet with the intention "to implore from Almighty God the end of the epidemic, relief for those who are afflicted and eternal salvation for those whom the Lord has called to Himself," can receive a plenary indulgence each day. *Which means as soon as the pandemic subsides and we are allowed to dispense the sacraments under normal conditions

For the instructions on how to pray the Divine Mercy chaplet and to read more about other ways to gain this special plenary indulgence, visit:

Opportunity to Dream

Fifth Week of Lent

Young people must be provided good nutrition to be able to pursue their dreams. Did you have the opportunity to dream? What can you do to give young people the opportunity to dream? Visit crsricebowl.org for more.

I am never in control of what happens around me but I am always in control of what happens within me.
