Looking for "PRAYER PARTNERS" for our Parish Youth

- WHAT?! We are looking for Prayer Partners – individuals, couples or families who are willing to “spiritually adopt” a young parishioner for this year
- WHO can be a prayer partner? ANYONE WILLING TO PRAY!!!
- WHY? Why NOT? We are all part of the Mystical Body of Christ – we are one! Uniting our prayers will help us to grow in faith and love of the Lord together as His disciples. These connections also provide opportunities for our community to cultivate relationships with each other in Christ.

The only requirement is that you offer up prayers daily for the student assigned to you! Other ideas are simply saying hello at Mass or sending little notes of encouragement (via. Mrs. Lagasse).

Please say yes by contacting Kelly Lagasse at 326-2250 or lagassekelly@yahoo.com

! THANK YOU !

A sincere Thank-you Note to the many volunteers, donors, and participants that supported our multiple events on Sunday, Sept. 27th, especially the Chicken BBQ. Without you, they would not have been a success (see $ under Receipts). We are planning another Chicken BBQ drive-thru for Sunday, Oct. 18th at noontime.

Please call to preorder 848-7741 or email me at info@allsaintsrichford.org – See you then!

Christ Our Hope Campaign

Isaiah 6:8: "Then I heard the voice of the Lord, saying, 'Whom shall I send, and who will go for us?' Then I said, 'Here am I. Send me!'"

Volunteers with the Christ Our Hope: Building a Vibrant Church campaign are busy making outreach calls to their fellow parishioners. The purpose of the call is to discuss the campaign, answer your questions and graciously ask you to consider joining in support of the campaign. The volunteers will not be asking for a specific gift amount nor do they know what you have been invited to consider giving. This is an invitation not an expectation.

With 60% of the funding coming back to our parishes we have an opportunity to address All Saints repairs on the church and the new water line for St. Isidore's parish hall.

If you receive a call, we ask that you take time to talk with the volunteer. They are doing God's work to help build His earthly kingdom. So, again, please take their call; if they leave a message, call them back and please treat them with the respect they rightly deserve.

Please don't forget you can join Bishop Coyne on Monday, Oct. 5 from 7-8 p.m. or Wednesday, Oct. 14 from 3-4 p.m. for a virtual chat to learn more about the campaign and its importance. To register for the Zoom event please visit <https://www.christourhopevt.org/events>

How One Soul Coming Before the Blessed Sacrament Can Change the World

Saint Therese of the Child Jesus is the patroness of all missionaries, even though she never left her convent. She died at the early age of twenty-four but accomplished great things through the power of prayer. The Church made her the patroness of all missionaries to emphasize and dramatize this most important truth: All conversions and all apostolic activities in the Church are accomplished by grace generated by prayer. The Church teaches that the most efficacious form of prayer is prayer in the Presence of Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament. Prayer in the Divine Presence of Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament releases the power, the blessings, and the graces of God. The best example of this is from Scripture. Jesus asked His Apostles who touched Him, because He felt power go out from Him. He was referring to the woman who made an act of faith by touching the hem of His garment, knowing that by doing so she would be healed. Another time, the Gospel tells us that everyone wanted to touch Him because power and graces flowed out from Him.

Each time that you go to Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament, you touch His Heart with your faith. Each holy hour that you make in the Presence of Jesus releases His power and graces upon you, your family, your parish, your diocese, and the world. This is why Pope St. John Paul II, said that "the Church and the world have a great need of Eucharistic Adoration." Pope St. John Paul II canonized St. Maximilian Kolbe, who made ten visits every day to the Blessed Sacrament during his adult life. He canonized St. Faustina, who wrote in her diary that each holy hour of prayer so pleases the Heart of Jesus that each man, woman, and child on the face of the earth receives a new effect of God's goodness and love because of the value of a single holy hour made in His Presence.

He also beatified Bl. Dina Belanger because of her devotion to Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament. Jesus revealed to Dina the power of the holy hour in making reparation. One form of reparation is the ability to make up for what is lacking in the life of another. One day before her holy hour, Jesus showed Dina a multitude of souls on the precipice of hell. After her holy hour, Jesus showed the same souls in the hands of God. He told her that through holy hours of prayer a multitude of souls go to heaven who otherwise would have gone to hell as one person can make up for what is lacking in the lives of others by winning precious efficacious graces for their salvation. In other words, Eucharistic Adoration is the outpouring of God's Divine Mercy on the world!

October 7th: Feast of Our Lady of the Holy Rosary

In his apostolic letter, Rosary of the Virgin Mary, Blessed Pope John Paul II observed, "The Rosary, though clearly Marian in character, is at heart a Christ-centered prayer. It has all the depth of the gospel message in its entirety." Through the Rosary, Mary guides us in the contemplation of significant events in the gospels. By meditating upon the 20 mysteries of the Rosary, we are led closer to Christ, with the ultimate aim of imitating His virtue. Meditation can be as mysterious as the Rosary mysteries themselves. Many Catholics would like to pray the Rosary more often but are unsure about how to meditate or where to begin. Meditation on the Mysteries begins with knowing them well as they are recorded in the Sacred Scriptures. Here are the Mysteries and where they can be found in the Bible; in parenthesis is a virtue that might be helpful to consider with that Mystery.

Joyful Mysteries:

1. The Annunciation (Abandonment to God's Will) Luke 1:26-38; John 1:14
2. The Visitation (Love of Neighbor) Luke 1:39-56
3. The Nativity (Poverty of spirit) Luke 2:6-20; Matthew 1:18-25
4. The Presentation (Offer your heart to God) Luke 2:22-39
5. The Finding of the Child Jesus in the Temple (Joy in finding Jesus in the Tabernacle) Luke 2:41-51

Luminous Mysteries:

1. The Baptism of Jesus (Fidelity to our baptismal promises) Matthew 3:11-17; Mark 1:9-11; Luke 3:15-22; John 1:26-34
2. The Wedding Feast at Cana (Faith in Mary's intercession & maternal care) John 2:1-12
3. The Proclamation of the Kingdom (Conversion of heart) Mark 1:14-15; Matthew 5:1-16; Matthew 6:33; Matthew 7:21
4. The Transfiguration (Desire to become a new person in Christ) Matthew 17:1-8; Mark 9:2-10; Luke 9:28-36
5. The Institution of the Eucharist (Love of the Eucharist); Matthew 26:26-28; Mark 22:25; Luke 22:14-20; John 6:33-59

Sorrowful Mysteries:

1. The Agony in the Garden (Resignation to God's Will) Matthew 26:36-46; Mark 14:32-42; Luke 22:39-46
2. The Scourging at the Pillar (Modesty and purity; mortification or self-denial) Matthew 27:26; Mark 15:15; Luke 23:16-22; John 19:1
3. The Crowning of Thorns (Humility) Matthew 27:29-30; Mark 15:16-20; John 19:2-3
4. The Carrying of the Cross (Perseverance & patience in suffering) Luke 23:26-32; Matthew 27:31-32; Mark 15:21; Luke 23:26-32
5. The Crucifixion (Mercy; sacrificial love) Luke 23:33-46; Matthew 27:33-54; Mark 15:22-39; Luke 23:33-47; John 19:17-37

Glorious Mysteries:

1. The Resurrection (Faith) Matthew 28:1-10; Mark 16:1-8; Luke 24:1-9; John 20:1-9
2. The Ascension (Hope) Mark: 16:19-20; Luke 24:50-51; Acts 1:6-11
3. The Descent of the Holy Spirit (Love of God) Acts 2:1-41
4. The Assumption* (Union with Christ) Revelation 12:1
5. The Crowning of Mary as Queen of Heaven and Earth* (True devotion to Mary) Revelation 12:1

*Mary's Assumption and Coronation are implied in Revelation Chapter 12 and in other Biblical references, but neither is directly stated in the Bible. Both events are part of Catholic Tradition. The Catechism of the Catholic Church defines the Assumption in Sections 966 and 974.
