Easter Sunday of the Resurrection of the Lord

HAPPY EASTER!!

Alleluia!

REJOICE, HE HAS RISEN..

Easter Present!

Archbishop's Visit

Archbishop Naumann
will be with us for Mass on Saturday, April 2nd, both the 4pm and 6pm.

He is coming for a pastoral visit, which means in addition to offering Mass with us,
he will meet with area
youth to encourage them as disciples of Jesus Christ, and with council members to hear how we are putting his five priorities into action.

The 5 priorities he established 10 years ago are: Conversion,

Evangelization, Catholic education, Service, and Stewardship.

Conversion is principally about the Eucharist becoming ever more the source and summit of our life, with the sacrament of reconciliation being used frequently for when we fail to do so.

Evangelization is principally parishioners seeking to invite others to join us on the path to heaven, and the parish having opportunities for them to learn and experience our Catholic faith. Education is principally lifelong growth in knowing

and loving God. We cannot love what/who we do not know, so we start early and never quit. A particular emphasis is given to equipping youth to discern God's call for their life.
Service is principally the works of mercy, many of which we are focusing on this year.

Stewardship is recognizing that ALL is a gift from our Father, and making a meager return to him for what he has given us.

Through his gift of time to us, the Archbishop gives us cause to thank God for the ultimate gift of salvation, and the ways we have helped grow His kingdom!

Regional Divine Mercy Sunday (April 3rd): Events at St. Peter & Paul Church in Seneca are as follows: We will gather in their Parish Hall for Opening Prayers at 3:00 PM:

We will then have a Procession to the Church.

The Chaplet of Divine Mercy will be sung in Church,

After which there will be Benediction and Closing.

After the events, there will be a Reception in the Parish Hall.

During all this time, there will be area priests hearing Confessions.

You may receive a Plenary Indulgence if you:

- 1) attend these events,
- 2) go to Confession within 20 days of the event,
- 3) go to Eucharistic Communion that day, or the days after
- 4) pray for the intentions of our Supreme Pontiff.

Your Easter Donation: A Blessing for Priests

Did you know your Easter offering is set aside for three important needs? The Archdiocese is blessed with 30 seminarians in formation for the priesthood. All rely on your generous donations to the Easter collection to help defray their tuition and expenses. The Easter collection also funds the continuing education and spiritual formation of priests. Finally, your contribution supports our beloved retired priests, who after many years of faithful service still remain pastorally active throughout their "golden" years. Please give generously to the Easter Collection and continue to pray for our priests and for vocations to the priesthood. Thank you for honoring them with your contribution.

Marriage Minute

Have you ever attended a “living stations of the cross?” Many parishes have their youth groups act out the steps of Jesus on his way to his crucifixion and death, and for the faithful, seeing these truths acted out in a dramatic form is very powerful. Did you know that as a married couple you are called to the same thing? St. John Paul II said, “Spouses are a permanent reminder of what happened on the Cross.” It can be hard to imagine the kind of sacrifice that Jesus made for us, but when we see a couple choose to forgive a serious offense, or pull together during a difficult pregnancy, or care for one another during a life-threatening illness, suddenly Jesus’ Passion is played out in front of our eyes. Likewise, couples mirror the Resurrection. Anyone who has had the honor of celebrating a 50th wedding anniversary has seen the joy that is the fruit of years of suffering offered for the good of the other. As we begin this Easter season, let us reflect on the crosses in our marriage and choose to bear them as Christ did, that we might show the world that His love brings new life.

Reflecting On Sunday's Readings

Easter, when delight was turned to disappointment and disappointment was turned to delight. Surely Satan and the forces of evil must have thought they had won the great battle. If the forces of evil could have danced, surely they must have been dancing in the streets. They thought they had killed the Son of God. Darkness seemed to have been reigning supreme from the time when Judas and an armed crowd, came to arrest Jesus under the cloak of darkness. Darkness provided the cover for the evil intentions of those persecuting Jesus but also for the shameful abandonment of Jesus by his disciples. Even Peter had to slink away into the darkness to hide his shame. How the forces of evil must have rejoiced as “from noon onward there was darkness over the whole land,” until at last Jesus “gave up his spirit.” How they must have believed that this darkness was just a foretaste of the spiritual darkness which would envelope the earth unabated by the Light of the World. But God had another plan and turned their delight to disappointment. While darkness still seemed to reign, Mary Magdalene and her companions, and later Peter and John, came “while it was still dark” only to find an empty tomb. Disappointment upon disappointment, or so it seemed at first. But when they realized that the face cloth was separate from the other burial wrappings, a ray of hope and light pierced the darkness, never to be extinguished again. Rather, it was a ray of hope and light which was to grow in brilliance as Christ’s resurrection became known and its meaning understood. Praise God, disappointment is now turned to delight! “The New Testament writers speak as if Christ’s achievement in rising from the dead was the first event of its kind in the whole history of the universe. He is the ‘first fruits’, the ‘pioneer of life’. He has forced open a door that has been locked since the death of the first man. He has met, fought, and beaten the King of Death.

Everything is different because He has done so. This is the beginning of the New Creation: a new chapter in cosmic history has opened.” (C.S. Lewis, from Miracles) Christ’s arrest, suffering, death, burial and resurrection introduced a new creation, a new life that has not only escaped the bonds of death but also the chains of enslavement to our natural passions and their subsequent evil behavior. With Jesus’ resurrection comes power to live differently. Jesus introduces a whole new perspective and purpose to life—life lived in union and communion with the Trinity. This new creation life is described in Ephesians 5 as walking in the Light because through the Holy Spirit’s abiding presence we are able to see life with new insight. In addition, walking in the Light implies a life of holiness is possible, free from the shadows of darkness. Wherever or whenever you are experiencing darkness of the soul, Jesus is there, a Light shining in darkness just as John said in the beginning of his Gospel. We should no longer shrink into our fears believing the lie that evil will triumph, but follow the disciples’ example and seek out the resurrected Christ. He is risen, he is triumphant, we are in him, full recipients of his victory. In Christ, we are a new creation, and can experience living as a new creation in the peace and power of Jesus. Contrary to the disciple in today’s Gospel reading, we need not see and believe, but instead we have the opportunity to believe and see.
