The Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Growing as Disciples of Jesus, Making Disciples For Jesus

This week in Catholic History: Our Lady of Lourdes (Feb 11th)

Bernadette was a sickly child of poor parents. Their practice of the Catholic faith was scarcely more than lukewarm. Bernadette could pray the Our Father, the Hail Mary and the Creed. She also knew the prayer of the Miraculous Medal: "O Mary conceived without sin."
During interrogations Bernadette gave an account of what she saw. It was "a pretty young girl with a rosary over her arm." Her white robe was encircled by a blue girdle. She wore a white veil. There was a yellow rose on each foot. A rosary was in her hand.

St. Bernadette was also impressed by the fact that the lady did not use the informal form of address (tu), but the polite form (vous). The humble virgin appeared to a humble girl and treated her with dignity.

Through that humble girl, Mary revitalized and continues to revitalize the faith of millions of people.
People began to flock to Lourdes from other parts of France and from all over the world. Thousands of miracles since 1858 are attributed to her intercession.
The statue in the narthex at Annunciation is of Our Lady of Lourdes.

Joyful Marriage Project:

Next weekend will introduce the Joyful Marriage Project, the fruit of the archbishop's desire that all married couples continue to be blessed with joy in their vocation and put work into following the way of Christ.
One such opportunity I wanted to announce was the Recharge mini-retreat, held at St. Gregory's in Marysville, Sunday, March 5th, from 1-5. It captures a few of the concepts found in "Living in Love" retreats. It's perfect for couples who have difficulty finding babysitting for a whole weekend, who want to experience a taste of the weekend, or who would like a refresher from their own weekend.

Totus Tuus

It is past time to start thinking of summer, and I can't wait! I know many plans are already in place, but here's a new one: I am the coordinator of Totus Tuus for the archdiocese now, meaning that in place of our July week, we will host all four teams for their training week here, June 3rd-9th. Compared to last summer's activities it will seem quiet, but there is one request I have of the parishes as a whole. The 16 teachers would like to eat, and while a number of the meals are already taken care of, I ask that members of each parish provide one dinner for them. For the sake of convenience, Annunciation cooks could bring food Monday evening, Blaine chefs could cover Tuesday evening, and St. Monica/Elizabeth bistros could bake Wednesday evening. (I would be very grateful if you'd put a serving in for the pastor as well) Please contact Pat Brady if you'd like to help out with a part of the meal. Thank you as always for feeding the hungry!

Marriage Minute- It's kickoff time!

When you hear that, you are probably thinking of the Super Bowl, which is one of the most "sacred" events of our secular culture. However, in addition to crowning a football champion this weekend, it is also time to kick off National Marriage Week. While National Marriage Week does not have the pomp and circumstance that the football game has, perhaps it should. While Super Bowl Sunday is a great opportunity to come together with friends and watch incredible athletes achieve the heights of athletic performance, it is also a great opportunity to gain insight on how to strive for excellence in our own marriage. What if we approached our marriage in the same way these incredible athletes approached this game? What if we prioritized and sacrificed to achieve the heights of marital joy with the same intentionality these athletes have sacrificed to be crowned champion? For your joyful marriage training protocol, go to www.JoyfulMarriageProject.com.

Reflecting On Sunday's Readings

“A man once stood before God, his heart breaking from the pain and injustice in the world. ‘Dear God,’ he cried out, ‘look at all the suffering, the anguish and distress in your world. Why don’t you send help?’ God responded, ‘I did send help. I sent you.’ When we tell our children that story, we must tell them that each one of them was sent to help repair the broken world—and that it is not the task of an instant or of a year, but of a lifetime.”<sup>1</sup> God is still repairing broken lives in this our broken world. All that is necessary is in place for broken lives to be repaired, put in place by a reconciling Savior who heals. Jesus knows, first hand, the darkness of our world because he lived in it, suffered from it, and then took that darkness on himself to redeem us from it. Later in the year we will celebrate at dawn his resurrection. The light of dawn represents the hope that Jesus, the Light of the world, brings to our darkened world. Today, many people live in places of such dark desolation and despair that their spiritual condition receives little or no attention, for everything is simply focused on their physical survival. As light bearers, we have been placed in our broken world to expedite the healing of broken lives. Two verses from the poem, “He Dawns Through the Darkness” capture both the empty isolation of man’s plight and the light-bearing hope that only you can bring to someone’s darkness. “Within our darkness, fear and fright when light seems gone, quenched from sight. Then through his Word, some act, a deed, he brings the Dawn, dark night recedes.” God often brings the light of dawn to people sitting in darkness, through you and me as we lovingly share his words of help and encouragement and as we do those things that ease the weight of darkness. Christ came sharing the truth, but he also came meeting the real needs of people. The promise in this week’s first reading is that as we share our abundance with those less fortunate our light will “break forth like the dawn” also. Many times we refrain from sharing with others because we don’t think we have an abundance, and because we often see our own situation as rather bleak. However as we take our eyes off of our need and focus on meeting the needs of others, we will discover that the darkness and gloom of our situation will dissipate as well, and God’s light will also break through for us. Salt and light are the two descriptive words Jesus uses to explain how we are to relate to the world. Saint Chrysostom explains, “It is not for your own sake, he says, but for the world’s sake that the word is entrusted to you. I am not sending you into two cities only or ten or twenty, not to a single nation, as I sent the prophets of old, but across land and sea to the whole world. ... Therefore, he requires of these men [women] those virtues which are especially useful and even necessary if they are to bear the burdens of many. For the man [or woman] who is kindly, modest, merciful and just will not keep his good works to himself but will see to it that these admirable fountains send out their streams for the good of others. Again, the man [or woman] who is clean of heart, a peacemaker and ardent for truth will order his life so as to contribute to the common good.”<sup>2</sup> This Sunday’s readings help us understand how to be the salt of the earth and light bearers for others and they promise that as we become salt and light to others we will experience the light of the Lord as well. Let’s determine to be Light bearers.
