The Fourth Sunday of Lent

Growing as Disciples of Jesus, Making Disciples for Jesus

THE FOURTH SUNDAY OF LENT

Read: 2 Corinthians 5:17

For anyone who is in Christ, there is a new creation; the old creation has gone, and now the new one is here. It is all God's work. It was God who reconciled us to himself through Christ and gave us the work of handing on this reconciliation.

Reflect:

□ What did Jesus have to do in order to make me into a new creation? Do I prefer the old life or the new life?
Why?

□ What do I have to do in order to be a new creation in Christ and receive this new life in Christ? What should I do so that I grow in this new life?

□ It is all God's work: our new life in Christ is lived in total dependence on God, a life of grace. What would my life be like if I lived in total dependence on God?

Pray: Almighty Father, thank you for making me a new creation in Christ. I am not defined by my failure or mistakes but by the power of your love. Give me a new heart, that I may love and desire what you love and desire. May I be always faithful to you.

Amen.

"Above all the grace and the gifts that Christ gives to his beloved is that of overcoming self." St. Francis of Assisi

Also, we need to have volunteers provide an evening meal in your home or at the Cigna Center (June 9-14) for the Team and possibly one or two others. Pat would like to get a finalized calendar by the week of May 20. Pat plans to "retire" as coordinator after this year, so if you would be interested in working some with Pat this year that would be great.

MARRIAGE MINUTE-

The Journey of 1000 Miles... Begins with the first step, and sometimes, the first step is the most difficult. Imagine the Prodigal Son; how difficult was it for him to acknowledge his offenses against his dad? The lost son had to admit serious sin, swallow his pride, and risk being rejected. The same scenario exists in the married relationship. How often does a spouse have to risk rejection if he or she admits wrongdoing and asks for forgiveness? Humility is difficult, but it is always worth it. If reconciling with your spouse is difficult, try the following: • Remember the last time you reconciled and the joy of being reunited • Look ahead and imagine how great it will be to be set free from your prison of isolation • Remember how Christ desires reconciliation and ask for

WORLDWIDE MARRIAGE ENCOUNTER

For a Christian, marriage is not just a social institution, it is a real supernatural calling. A great sacrament, instituted by Christ. It is a permanent contract that sanctifies in cooperation with Jesus Christ. He fills the souls of husband and wife and invites them to follow him. He transforms their whole married life into an occasion for God's presence on earth. How well are you living out your supernatural calling? A Worldwide Marriage Encounter Weekend can help you explore and answer that question! The next weekend in the Kansas City area will be May 3-5, 2019. For more information, or to apply for a weekend, visit www.wwme4youandme.org, or call/email Tony & Barb Zimmerman at 816-741-4066

Reflecting On Sunday's Readings

Here it is, the great accusation, the compelling indictment against Jesus—“This man receives sinners and eats with them.” This indictment of Jesus by his ungrateful and self-righteous critics, is also the unknowing restatement of the Good New—“This man receives sinners and eats with them.” Perhaps this is a sign we should hang around the necks of our Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion to remind us that this is what takes place at every Eucharist meal—“This man [Jesus] receives sinners and eats with them.” Luke is often called the Gospel of meals, for in Luke’s Gospel he records ten meals in which Jesus participated and two major parables which Jesus positioned around meals. In our own lives, meals play a major role. Thanksgiving, Christmas, Easter, weddings, graduations, promotions, all are examples of when we gather with our loved ones around a meal or a banquet to remember, to honor, and to rejoice over the high points of our lives. And though it is less so in today’s hectic society the daily meal is a place of belonging and nurture where the family can unite. Ultimately, as in each of the Gospels, Jesus becomes the life-saving meal of our redemption. The parable of the Prodigal Son which we read in this week’s Gospel Reading, reflects elements of both celebration and of belonging. The wayward son returns, having rejected both his family and his family’s values. In desperation he finally comes to his senses and returns home. Occasions of such repentance are not the time for recriminations but for celebration! One who was as dead is alive again. The father of the Prodigal Son who is illustrative of our heavenly Father was watching for his wayward son’s return and runs to welcome the Prodigal home. He immediately sets about to have a banquet in his son’s honor. Like Jesus—“This man receives sinners and eats with them.” Similar to the religious hypocrites, who challenged Jesus, so the elder son murmured against his father and challenged his merciful behavior. The Prodigal came home in guilty remorse saying, “I am not worthy to be called your son; treat me as one of your hired servants,” and the elder son’s attitude shouted, “That’s right, he’s not worthy!” implying that he, the elder son, is worthy. These are the flies in the ointment of their understanding that Jesus came to destroy. The lie of the Prodigal son’s guilty conscience and the deceit of the elder son’s self-righteousness both seek to convince us that though we are children of God we are unworthy of his love. Unfortunately, neither the Pharisees and scribes, nor the two sons understood that the Father does not receive us based on our worthiness. Rather, having been made worthy through the merits of Christ we can be assured of the Father’s mercy and grace because—“This man receives sinners and eats with them.” During Lent we must stop listening to the voices of condemnation and hear the voice of invitation to “Come, eat and commune with me.” We must repent of viewing the Eucharist as a fast food meal and recognize that Jesus wants to daily feed us with himself through communion with him around his Word. As Jesus told Mary and Martha at another meal in Luke’s Gospel, sitting at his feet and feasting on his words is choosing the “better part” and the necessary thing. And so we should, for—“This man receives sinners and eats with them.” “I now realize that there are two things especially necessary to me ... You have therefore given me in my weakness Your sacred Body to be the refreshment of my soul and body, and have set Your Word as a lamp to my feet. Without these two, I cannot rightly live; for the Word of God is the light of my soul, and Your sacrament is the bread of my life.” (Thomas à Kempis in The Imitation of Christ) Lent is the ideal time to reject spiritual anorexia. With the Scripture and the Eucharist, the table is set. Now is the time to reject self-imposed spiritual starvation and to avail ourselves of the spiritual nourishment

To date $3,185.00 has been pledged, which is 80% of our goal
