Easter Sunday of the Resurrection of the Lord

Growing as Disciples of Jesus, Making Disciples for Jesus

Alleluia! Christ is Risen! He is Risen Indeed!

We awake today to a shift so seismic, it's a wonder the earth didn't bobble a bit on its axis. Jesus Christ is risen today. Alleluia! Alleluia! It's as though someone has thrown open the world's windows. The earthly scent of new life mixed with the heady scent of Easter lilies rushed through and makes us swoon. It seems too good to be true, and yet we know this is what Jesus has earned for us. Brokenness has been transformed into beauty, death into life, sorrow into joy. Although we've known all along how Calvary would end, it still takes us by surprise come Easter morning. Our God became human, died for us, and rose to new life so that we might never die. That's a truth that never gets old. We see and we believe!

But believing is not the end of this. As we hear in Acts of the Apostles, Jesus wants us to preach, to testify to this truth. That is our calling, our mission, not just on Easter but every day of our lives. Not just in church but at the dinner table, at the water cooler, on social media, on the soccer field, in the grocery line, and everywhere else we go. We don't have to give a prepared speech or even speak at all. We simply have to let our everyday actions speak to the truth we know in our hearts. Jesus Christ is our Lord and Savior. He came to save every one of us simply because he loves us just as we are, for all time until the end of time. Amen, amen. Alleluia, amen!

Prayer: Risen Lord, we come to you today filled with awe and gratitude, humility and joy. We thank you for this gift of new life and this promise of hope.

HAPPY EASTER!

Your Easter Donation: Supporting Priests & Seminarians Did you know your Easter offering is set aside for three important needs? The Easter collection helps cover the significant cost of our seminarians education. It also funds the continuing education and spiritual formation of our priests. Finally, your contribution finances a necessary retirement fund to help support our beloved retired priests. Please use your Easter envelope to give generously to this collection for seminarians and priests, and please pray for them. Thank you for your support of the Priesthood: Present & Future Easter appeal.

TOTUS TUUS

Annunciation Parish will host Totus Tuus for the 7th year. This year the dates are June 9-13 (Jr. & Sr. high students) and June 10-14 grades 1-6. Students need to enroll for the class they will be in starting fall 2019. There will be no online enrollment this year. Forms will be in the vestibule of each parish. Please return them to the parish office or mail to Pat Brady (2772 28th Rd., Vermillion, KS 66544). The same as years before, the students will bring a sack lunch, drinks will be provided. Also in year's past we are asking volunteers to house the Totus Tuus Team (2 guys and 2 gals). The Team would arrive on June 8 and leave June 15. Please call Pat Brady at 396-4396 or 336-1039 if you would provide housing for the Team. The host family would provide a light breakfast and other meals will be provided. Also, we need to have volunteers provide an evening meal in your home or at the Cigna Center (June 9-14) for the Team and possibly one or two others. Pat would like to get a finalized calendar by the week of May 20. Pat plans to “retire” as coordinator after this year, so if you would be interested in working some with Pat this year that would be great.

FYI ALL PARISHIONERS— Fr.

Anthony's current cell phone number has been hacked by scammers. If you receive a text supposedly from him requesting you to purchase I-tune cards or other gifts cards or requesting a “special favor” It is a scam! Do not respond to this. As you recall his e-mail address was hacked while he was in India. Read the article in the April 5th issue of The Leaven. Other Catholics in the Archdiocese have been targeted as well.

CRS RICE BOWL—Easter Sunday Encounter the Risen Christ—We prayed, fasted and gave alms—and now we celebrate Easter joy! Our Lenten journey with CRS Rice Bowl challenges us as we encounter our Risen Lord to bring the hope of Resurrection to a world in need. Don't forget to turn in your Rice Bowl. You may drop them the collection basket or bring to the Parish Office.

MARRIAGE MINUTE

How can Easter impact your marriage? After the sacrifice of Lent and the gloom of Holy Week, we can sometimes arrive at Easter like someone who has finished a dreaded chore, and we resume regularly scheduled life. However, if this is our approach, we miss the gift Easter can be for our marriages. The first message of the Resurrection is “Don't be afraid!” This phrase is proclaimed to all who approach the empty tomb, and to us as married people as well. We should not be afraid: • ... of serious illness, financial or relationship problems. He has conquered even death, so He can bring good out of any evil we face. • ... of facing our own or our spouse's sin. He loved his disciples after they abandoned him. He can help us love each other with that same love. To unleash Easter Joy into your marriage, visit www.JoyfulMarriageProject.com.

Feast of St. Isidore - Christ's Peace House of Prayer is hosting a special Mass and blessing of seed and soil for the Feast of St. Isidore, the patron saint of farmers, on May 15th. The day will begin with Mass at 11am followed by a procession to the Saint Isidore Shrine and a blessing of the seeds and soil. Bring seeds and soil in a small decorated basket to be placed at the altar for blessing. The day will conclude with lunch and

Reflecting On Sunday's Readings

Easter, when delight was turned to disappointment and disappointment was turned to delight. Surely Satan and the forces of evil must have thought they had won the great battle. If the forces of evil could have danced, surely they must have been dancing in the streets. They thought they had killed the Son of God. Darkness seemed to have been reigning supreme from the time when Judas and an armed crowd, came to arrest Jesus under the cloak of darkness. Darkness provided the cover for the evil intentions of those persecuting Jesus but also for the shameful abandonment of Jesus by his disciples. Even Peter had to slink away into the darkness to hide his shame. How the forces of evil must have rejoiced as “from noon onward there was darkness over the whole land,” until at last Jesus “gave up his spirit.” How they must have believed that this darkness was just a foretaste of the spiritual darkness which would envelope the earth unabated by the Light of the World. But God had another plan and turned their delight to disappointment. While darkness still seemed to reign, Mary Magdalene and her companions, and later Peter and John, came “while it was still dark” only to find an empty tomb. Disappointment upon disappointment, or so it seemed at first. But when they realized that the face cloth was separate from the other burial wrappings, a ray of hope and light pierced the darkness, never to be extinguished again. Rather, it was a ray of hope and light which was to grow in brilliance as Christ’s resurrection became known and its meaning understood. Praise God, disappointment is now turned to delight! “The New Testament writers speak as if Christ’s achievement in rising from the dead was the first event of its kind in the whole history of the universe. He is the ‘first fruits’, the ‘pioneer of life’. He has forced open a door that has been locked since the death of the first man. He has met, fought, and beaten the King of Death. Everything is different because He has done so. This is the beginning of the New Creation: a new chapter in cosmic history has opened.” (C.S. Lewis, from Miracles) Christ’s arrest, suffering, death, burial and resurrection introduced a new creation, a new life that has not only escaped the bonds of death but also the chains of enslavement to our natural passions and their subsequent evil behavior. With Jesus’ resurrection comes power to live differently. Jesus introduces a whole new perspective and purpose to life—life lived in union and communion with the Trinity. This new-creation life is described in Ephesians 5 as walking in the Light because through the Holy Spirit’s abiding presence we are able to see life with new insight. In addition, walking in the Light implies a life of holiness is possible, free from the shadows of darkness. Wherever or whenever you are experiencing darkness of the soul, Jesus is there, a Light shining in darkness just as John said in the beginning of his Gospel. We should no longer shrink into our fears believing the lie that evil will triumph, but follow the disciples’ example and seek out the resurrected Christ. He is risen, he is triumphant, we are in him, full recipients of his victory. In Christ, we are a new creation, and can experience living as a new creation in the peace and power of Jesus.
