MAY 12TH 2019

The Fourth Sunday of Easter

Growing as Disciples of Jesus, Making Disciples for Jesus

WORLD DAY OF PRAYER FOR VOCA- TIONS

Today Sunday, May 12, the Catholic Church asks us to pray for an increase in vocations to the priesthood and religious life. Just as Jesus encountered Simon and Andrew, asking them to leave their nets and follow him, he asks the same of us. The Lord's call to the priesthood or religious life is not a burden, but a loving invitation to assist him in his mission. This week, please pray that those who

Christ is calling will not be afraid, but will trust in his plan for them which will bring more joy fulfillment than they could imagine.

PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

O Jesus, Good and Gentle Shepherd, grant that the men and women from our community may have the grace and the courage to hear and answer your call to priesthood and religious life. Give them the wisdom to realize that life is a gift. Let them realize their life is part of your plan. Call forth those you have chosen to spread the Gospel message, and help them to freely respond to a life of service in the Church. May the parents and families of our parish support and encourage our young men and women to search for, follow, and answer the call of God in their lives. Amen

Happy Mother's Day! A Prayer for Mothers

O God, who entered our world through the Blessed Virgin Mary, bless the women who gave us life and fed and filled us with their love and understanding.

Grant all mothers patience to put up with pettiness, mercy to forgive mistakes, wisdom to overcome weakness, strength to survive difficulties, humor to lighten heavy loads, and happiness all their days. For words unspoken or unkind, for missed opportunities, for failing to help or hear, forgive us our faults O Lord.

Into Your hands we commend the souls of mothers no longer with us and the health and wellbeing of mothers young and old through and with whom we continue to enjoy and share the miracle of life. Amen.

MARRIAGE MINUTE At a crowded playground, somehow mothers are able to discern their own child’s cries. Likewise, when a mom shouts, “Time to go!” her own child knows he has been summoned. This is the type of intimate familiarity that Jesus wants with us when he says, “My sheep hear my voice,” and the kind that husbands and wives should have with one another. Married couples can intentionally grow in this kind of unity by:

- Learning to share feelings in a way that makes them feel connected.
- Developing a healthy way to come together on issues and make decisions.
- Appreciating the other’s unique masculinity or femininity. These skills are all taught in an upcoming course called Every Day in Love. Sign up today and make it a Mother’s Day gift! www.archkck.org/everyday

Teaching Positions - St. Gregory Catholic School is seeking qualified teachers for the following Part Time positions PE Teacher, Art/Library Teacher, and Title I Instructor for the upcoming 2019/20 school year. # Reflecting On Sunday's Readings

In a world noted for divisions between people, Jesus' statement that, "I and the Father are one," stands out in stark contrast. Whereas "oneness" is the hallmark of the Divine relationship, disunity is the hallmark of humankind's relationships. Wherever we look in the world, division and its accompanying hostility is rampant; nation against nation, culture against culture, race against race, party against party, individual against individual, husband against wife, sibling against sibling, child against parent, and unfortunately even Christian against Christian. Everywhere we look people are attempting to establish their value by devaluing others, and to establish their prosperity at the cost of others. In the midst of all this hatred and conflict Jesus stands in stark contrast declaring that unity and oneness define his eternal relationship with the Father. From the beginning Christ offered the world a chance to unite as one, bringing individuals from "every nation, from all tribes and peoples and tongues" into one united body of love. Though Christianity was born from within Judaism, Christ had forever intended to be a "light for the Gentiles" as well. Finally, people who previously would have had little or nothing to do with one another are made "one" in Christ. Jesus did not do this by making the Gentile, Jewish, nor by requiring the Jew to become like the Gentile. Rather, as it points out in Ephesians 2, he brought about this unity by making of the two, one new being. When either Jew or Gentile puts their faith in Christ and accepts salvation through him they become citizens in spirit of a New Kingdom whose benefits and demands require a higher allegiance than any they may have previously held. The Trinity's distinguishing characteristic of unity offers hope of peace to a world of fractured relationships—however the world can only learn the reality of this oneness by observing the unity that exists within his body. Unfortunately, the way Christians relate to one another is often more of a scandal than a testimony of hope, and often functions as a detour sign rather than a sign post pointing clearly to Christ. The roots of this disunity are planted in the soil of fear, and nourished by the manure of pride and self-righteousness. In disunity our gaze is focused primarily on the differences of others, and upon the supposed perfection of our own position. However, the roots of unity are planted in the Holy Spirit, and nourished by the light of the Father's love and the reality of Christ's passion. Consequently, in everlasting gratitude our gaze should be shifted both from the differences of others and from our own supposed perfection. Instead we should focus on Christ's dwelling within the other believer, and on the reality that Jesus values the other members of his body so much that he willingly died for them. To speak and act hatefully toward a believer of a different theological persuasion than our own is to speak and act hatefully towards the temple of the Holy Spirit and is more representative of the Pharisees treatment of Christ than of Christ treatment of us. We collectively are his sheep. We may have wool coats of various colors and textures but his Spirit dwells within each of us, and that is what makes us sheep. Let's determine to hear his voice and follow him, and to not focus on our non-essential differences. In so doing we will both experience and manifest that perfect unity which the Son has with the Father and we will not only provide a living message of hope for the world but also find ourselves more unified in our beliefs. "In effect, this unity bestowed by the Holy Spirit does not merely consist in the gathering of people as a collection of individuals. It is a unity constituted by the bonds of the profession of faith, the sacraments and hierarchical communion. The faithful are one because, in the Spirit, they are in communion with the Son and, in him, share in his communion with the Father. 'Our fellowship is with the Father and with his Son Jesus Christ'
