The Twenty-First Sunday in Ordinary Time

Growing as Disciples of Jesus, Making Disciples for Jesus

CALLING ALL
PARISHIONERS
Would you have time to come spend in prayer
during Eucharistic Adoration?

Adoration is offered at all 3 parishes.

Adoration, Rosary, & Benediction, Tuesdays, 7:00 pm at Annunciation.

Adoration, Fridays, 1:00 to 4:00 pm at Annunciation.

pm at St. Monica/St. Elizabeth, Blue Rapids.

Adoration, Wednesdays,
11:00 to 3:00 pm at St.
Columbkille, Blaine.

Here are some benefits of Eucharistic Adoration

1 – Every Holy Hour we make so pleases the Heart of Jesus that it is recorded in Heaven and retold for all eternity!
(Blessed Mother Teresa of Calcutta)

2 – The spiritual lives of our families are strengthened through our Holy Hour.
(Blessed John Paul II)

3 – A Holy Hour of prayer before the Blessed Sacrament is so important to Jesus that a multitude of souls go to Heaven who otherwise would have gone to hell. (Jesus revelation to Blessed Dina Belanger)

4 – All the angels of heaven gaze in ecstasy at the image left on your soul after each holy hour you make in the presence of Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament. (Excerpt from 'Letters To A Brother Priest')

5 – The only time our Lord asked the Apostles for anything was the night He went into agony. Not for activity did He plead but for an Hour of companionship. (Archbishop Fulton Sheen)

6 – Each time you approach the Blessed Sacrament remember that Jesus has been waiting for you for twenty centuries for this personal visit from
you. (St. Josemaria Escriva)

7 – A Holy Hour of Eucharistic Adoration is a sharing in the work of Redemption.
(Archbishop Fulton Sheen)

8 – The grace of adoration of Jesus in the Most Blessed Sacrament is given to everybody.
(St. Peter Julian Eymard)

9 – Our Lord hears our prayers anywhere, but He has revealed to His servants that those who visit Him in the Eucharist will obtain a more abundant measure of grace. (St. Alphonsus Ligouri)

10 During our Holy Hour we lift up to the Eucharistic Heart of Jesus those souls in the most need of His mercy.
(St. Alphonsus Ligouri)

Marriage Minute- Discipline. The word brings to mind a child in “time out,” or spending hours in the gym. In other words, no fun! Discipline, however, can bring “peaceful fruit” to your marriage: • Hold your tongue: You get the benefit of hearing your spouse's whole thought, and you save hurt feelings from unkind words. • Speak his/her love language: Vacuuming, rubbing shoulders, sharing feelings or hanging out may not be your favorite, but if it's what makes your spouse feel loved, the sacrifice is worth the effort! • Write letters: It usually seems easier to talk things through, but the discipline of writing can help both spouses articulate their thoughts and share more effectively. • Learn new habits: New relationship skills take some effort to learn, but they release so much joy! These skills will be taught in the upcoming Every Day in Love Course offered at Church of the Ascension in Overland Park: www.archkck.org/everyday

Reflecting On Sunday's Readings

We observed an interesting aspect of humanity when we visited Paris recently. We were in a taxi that was moving at a harrowing speed down a crowded three-lane interstate-type road. Suddenly several motor scooters came zipping past us, driving on the white lines, between the cars. A scary way to get someplace! A similar but different situation is frequently observed in our own country. It is not unusual to be sitting in a long line of cars that have obediently merged into one lane as directed, patiently waiting to progress through construction. Suddenly, impatient drivers, ignoring the signs instructing them to merge, drive down the closing lane to the front of the line to leapfrog all those who are waiting patiently and courteously. Each is an example of how people want to ignore the rules and make their own way in a crowded world. In this week's Gospel reading, when one of the people following Jesus asked, "Lord, will those who are saved be few?" the inquirer undoubtedly was thinking from the narrow perspective of the Jewish concept of salvation as being only for Israel, and in addition only for some within Israel. However, Jesus did not answer the question directly; rather he spoke about the many who would try to make their own way to heaven instead of entering through the narrow way, through belief in Jesus the Christ. Secondly, he answered the question by unequivocally stating that heaven would be populated by people "from east and west, and from north and south." This is consistent with Isaiah's prophesy that the Lord would "gather all nations and tongues" to see and proclaim the glory of the Lord among the nations. Simply stated the answer to the question, "Will only a few be saved?" is that a diverse multitude of people from the nations of the world will be saved, all of them by the same narrow way—by the mercy and grace of Jesus the Christ. Some of us, like the drivers in the examples above, will seek short cuts on the road of faith or assume that we are the exception and can ignore the rules of faith and for our personal convenience make up a few rules of our own. Jesus makes it clear, that though for a time it will look like we are getting away with flaunting God's principles and doing our own thing, that a day of reckoning will come when "behold, some are last who will be first, and some are first who will be last." The Father did not insure that we had the Old Testament's written record of his dealing with his people, for nothing. Nor did Jesus pay the price to live and teach among us, without purpose. The process of salvation is important to God and that process has been revealed and is quite narrow. • Jesus came as THE Way so that we would have an entrance into heaven. • Jesus came as THE Truth so that we would know for a certainty what is true about God. • Jesus came as THE Life so that we might live in relationship with him both now and forever, instead of simply existing. Let's stop trying to experience salvation our way and on our own terms. Instead, let's follow the Church's lead over the centuries and determine to follow him by following in his way faithfully. "Some people wonder how it is possible, seeing that we are called from all the nations on earth, for us to be regarded as one holy people. The answer to this is that although we are from many different nations, the fact that we have all repented of our sins and accepted a common will and a common mind gives those who have repented one doctrine and one faith. When there is a soul and heart common to all believers, then they are called one people." (Didymus the Blind as quoted in the Ancient Christian Commentary on Scripture, Vol. XI)
