The Fourth Sunday of Advent

Too often we think being righteous is about being "right." Yet people who need to be "right" have done countless wrongs throughout history. And it is no different today. Biblical righteousness is far deeper. It requires more than legal and moral certitudes but rather deals with faith and trust. Paul reminds us that true rightness comes through faith in the One who alone is righteous. Faith ultimately is a leap into the unknown, a surrender of trust in God who has the power to forgive us, reconcile us, and restore us to right relationship with God and one another.

Prayer

Heavenly Father, incline my heart to fulfill your will in all that I do, in thought, word, and deed. Help me to hear your voice always and to surrender myself to you completely.

*May your holidays be

health, good cheer

This event is for all 3 Parish Families. There will be NO 4:00 pm Mass at Annunciation and NO 6:00 pm Mass at St. Columbkille on Jan. 11th. Masses on Sunday, Jan. 12th will be 8:30 am at St. Columbkille, Blaine and 10:30 am at Annunciation, Frankfort. Anthony.

MARRIAGE MINUTE We love Christmas for its symbols and signs: trees, holly, and, of course, the nativity set. If you're married, YOU are a sign too? At Christmas, we celebrate the fact that God does not love us from a distance. He became a baby boy so he could share all of our joys and sorrows. As spouses, we committed the same in our vows and proclaim this reality every time we share:

- The joy of our spouse's accomplishments
  - The grief of a loss with our spouse
  - The weight of an important decision
- By entering deeply into our spouse's reality, we shine brightly like the Star of Bethlehem, guiding people to the love of God. Discover more for your marriage at www.JoyfulMarriageProject.com

Reflecting On Sunday's Readings

Advent is the season for listening—listening with the inner ears of our heart. One of the most obvious characteristics of Jesus' first advent was the many occasions that God used to send his unique message through unique messengers. The angel Gabriel spoke to Zachariah, and to Mary, and the Angel of the Lord spoke to Joseph, and to the shepherds. The Magi listened to God's message through the prophets by following the star which announced Jesus' impending birth, and Simeon and Anna watched and waited, listening for the Holy Spirit to announce to them the coming of the "consolation of Israel." Grateful and responsive ears listened to these unique messages brought by God's unique messengers. Though the messages varied from person to person there was a consistency throughout. "Do not be afraid," was the constant refrain as people were surprised by the amazing glory of the heavenly messengers. "Do not be afraid," was a message though that spoke to more than the amazement and surprise of seeing a heavenly being. These words were more than a simple message of comfort in a shocking situation, they were a message of comfort from the all-powerful Lord of Host, from our Heavenly Father assuring his people that he only had thoughts of peace and good will toward them. It is a message that we need to listen to as well during this Advent Season. So many of us think that God has an adversarial relationship with us and that we are just one step away from receiving ill-will at his hands. Our fear is often rooted in the self-awareness of our soul's neglected condition, and our everyday failure of living up to God's expectations. Advent is a time to listen, but we must not listen to our fears and self-doubt but to God's message to, "Be not afraid." Jesus' first advent was living proof of the Fathers intentions of love and concern for us. Though the words varied from incident to incident there was also a second consistency to the messages that these heavenly messengers brought. That consistent message was that our salvation was imminent. Listen to these words of salvation: □ To Elizabeth and Zachariah—"Blessed be the Lord God of Israel, for he has visited and redeemed his people, and has raised up a horn of salvation for us." □ To Mary—"behold, you will conceive in your womb and bear a son, and you shall call his name Jesus. He will be great, and will be called the Son of the Most High; and the Lord God will give to him the throne of his father David, and he will reign over the house of Jacob for ever, and of his kingdom there will be no end." □ To Joseph—"you shall call his name Jesus, for he will save his people from their sins" □ To the Magi—"from you shall come a ruler who will govern my people Israel" □ To the Shepherds—"I bring you good news of a great joy which will come to all the people; for to you is born this day in the city of David a Savior, who is Christ the Lord" □ To Simeon—"Lord, now lettest thou thy servant depart in peace, according to thy word; for mine eyes have seen thy salvation which thou hast prepared in the presence of all peoples, a light for revelation to the Gentiles." As each heard the message, they promptly responded in their own way with the obedience of faith Paul talks about in this week's Second Reading. None more profoundly illustrates this response than does Mary with her loving surrender, "Behold, I am the handmaid of the Lord; let it be to me according to your word." This too is the message of Advent to which we must listen, not only listen but respond in like surrender. As the participants of that First Advent so clearly illustrate, the message of salvation is not something one can easily ignore if you genuinely believe it to be true. Rather, like the shepherds and the Magi, we also should begin moving in the direction of the Savior, the Lord of salvation. Advent is a time of listening, active listening and prompt response. May we each listen, hear and respond this Advent Season.
