Stewardship Prayer

Loving Father,

thank you for the gifts of your love, your forgiveness, and your grace. We know that even in our weakness your strength sustains us. Equip us to face the challenges of life confident in your fatherly care. May our love for our neighbor be a reflection of your divine love, which is perfect, never-failing, and ever-present. As we navigate these difficult times, please fill us with your Spirit of wisdom, so that we may always choose the path that leads to you.

We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

GATHERING SONG

Crown Him with Many Crowns

Public Domain

Verse 1

Crown him with many crowns,
The Lamb upon his throne;
Hark! how the heav'nly anthem drowns
All music but its own.
Awake, my soul, and sing
Of him who set us free,
And hail him as your heav'nly King
Through all eternity.

Verse 2

Crown him the Lord of life,
Who triumphed o'er the grave,
And rose victorious in the strife
For those he came to save.
His glories now we sing,
Who died and rose on high,
Who died, eternal life to bring,
And lives that death may die.

PENITENTIAL ACT—THE CONFITEOR

I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters, That I have greatly sinned, in my thoughts and in my words, In what I have done and in what I have failed to do,

*Striking breast 3 times ***

Through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault;

Therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin, all the Angels and Saints, And you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord our God.

KYRIE Lord, have mercy. Christ, have mercy. Lord, have mercy.

GLORIA

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will.

We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the Glory of God the Father. Amen.

FIRST READING

Ezekiel 34:11-12, 15-17

Ezekiel was an Old Testament prophet who ministered to the Jewish people exiled in Babylon. In this passage, Ezekiel uses a popular biblical image of God, that of a shepherd who cares for the sheep. Ezekiel reminds the people that the role of the shepherd is also to exercise good judgment.

Lector: The Word of the Lord.

All: Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 23 (Owen Alstott)

The Lord is my shepherd;
there is nothing I shall want.

SECOND READING

1 Corinthians 15:20-26,28

In his first letter to the Corinthians, Paul addresses problems that his converts in the community are experiencing. Some members had questioned the bodily resurrection of Jesus and our own resurrection, as well. This passage is Paul's response.

Lector: The Word of the Lord.

All: Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia

Mark 11:9, 10

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord! Blessed is the kingdom of our father David that is to come!

GOSPEL

Matthew 25:31-46

As a shepherd separates sheep from goats, so will the Son of Man come in glory to separate those who fed the hungry from those who did not: "As often as you did it to one of these little ones, you did it to me."

Deacon/Priest: The Gospel of the Lord.

All: Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

PROFESSION OF FAITH

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,

*Bow. **

and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.

He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Note: We make a profound bow to honor the most important act in human history – God becoming man.*

COMMUNION

We Come to Your Feast
Michael Joncas

Verse 1

We place upon your table a gleaming cloth of white:
the weaving of our stories,
the fabric of our lives;
the dreams of those before us,
the ancient hopeful cries, the promise of our future: our needing and our nurture lie here before our eyes.

Refrain:

We come to your feast,
we come to your feast:
the young and the old, the frightened,
the bold, the greatest and the least.
We come to your feast,
we come to your feast
with the fruit of our lands and the work of our hands, we come to your feast.

Verse 2

We place upon your table
a humble loaf of bread:
the gift of field and hillside,
the grain by which we're fed;
we come to taste the presence of him on whom we feed,
to strengthen and connect us,
to challenge and correct us,
to love in word and deed.

Verse 3

We place upon your table
a simple cup of wine:
the fruit of human labor,
the gift of sun and vine;
we come to taste the presence of him
we claim as Lord,
his dying and his living,

his leading and his giving,
his love in cup outpoured.

Verse 4

We gather 'round your table,
we pause within our quest,
we stand beside our neighbors, we name the stranger 'guest.'
The feast is spread before us;
you bid us come and dine:
in blessing we'll uncover, in sharing we'll discover your substance and your sign.

The King of Love My Shepherd Is
Public Domain

Verse 1

The King of love my shepherd is,
Whose goodness fails me never;
I nothing lack if I am his,
And he is mine for ever.

Verse 2

Where streams of living water flow
My ransomed soul he's leading,
And where the verdant pastures grow
With food celestial feeding.

Verse 3

Confused and foolish oft I strayed,
But yet in love he sought me;
And on his shoulder gently laid,
And home, rejoicing, brought me.

Verse 4

In death's dark vale I fear no ill
With you, dear Lord, beside me,
Your rod and staff my comfort still,
Your cross before to guide me.

Verse 5

You spread a table in my sight;
Your saving grace bestowing;
And O what transport of delight
From your pure chalice flowing!

Verse 6

And so through all the length of days
Your goodness fails me never;
Good Shepherd, may
I sing your praise
Within your house for ever.

CONCLUDING RITES—"Ite, missa est." - "Go, you are sent."

The King of glory comes, the nation rejoices.
Open the gates before him, lift up your voices.

Verse 1

Who is the king of glory; how shall we call him?
He is Emmanuel, the promised of ages.

Verse 2

In all of Galilee, in city or village,
He goes among his people curing their illness.

Verse 3

Sing then of David's Son, our Savior and brother;
In all of Galilee was never another.

Verse 4

He gave his life for us, the pledge of salvation,
He took upon himself the sins of the nation.

Verse 5

He conquered sin and death; he truly has risen.
And he will share with us his heavenly vision.
