Cycles of Faith – Pentecost

"God is always more." Have you ever heard that? If we truly believe that He is infinite, then this statement is worth exploring. Today, we celebrate the coming of the Holy Spirit in power upon the early Church. But Pentecost wasn't the first time the disciples received the Holy Spirit. The Gospel actually occurs chronologically before Pentecost. Soon after the Resurrection, Jesus already "came and stood in their [the disciples'] midst... he breathed on them and said to them, 'Receive the Holy Spirit.'"

God is always more. Sometimes we might think the grace of God as one and done. God might break through in people's lives, but it's a one-time event on a retreat or preceding a dramatic conversion of life. But there's always more to come. Even today's Gospel isn't the first time the breath of God stirred. In Genesis, it's God's breath that stirs life into Adam in the garden. Jesus breathes on the Apostles, giving them the Holy Spirit in the quiet and silence. Later, that breath will stir into a "driving wind", and the Spirit will descend with flame...not unlike Moses on Mount Sinai.

God is always more. He has spoken throughout salvation history, and continues to speak into our lives through His Church and through the Holy Spirit alive in our hearts. This Pentecost Sunday, let us come before Him with expectant hearts! Like the disciples in the Gospel and first reading, let us await what "more" God will do.

Vacation Bible Camp: Essex Catholic Community Vacation Bible School is taking place this summer July 15-19 from 9:00 a.m. - 12:00 p.m.

Throughout the week they will make an imaginary trip back in time to learn about a formative period of our Christian Faith - the Church during the Middle Ages in Europe (the time of King Arthur & Robin Hood). They will pretend to be a band of pilgrims traveling with our guide and spiritual mentor, St. Francis, to the Cathedral of St. James in Spain.

The program is ideal for children, ages 5 and above (5th grade seems to be the typical limit). Younger children are welcome to attend, but need to have a supervising adult present at all times. Your children will... Sing, dance, pray, eat, and play outdoor period-related games & activities! Create AMAZING, period-related crafts designed by educators! Experience hilarious, dramatic skits that will make the saints of this period come alive! Delve into what it means to be a pilgrim, making their way to God, and reflect on Bible Stories that help them do just that! If you are interested, please contact Marie at marietcookson@aol.com and a registration form will be sent to you.
