Cycles of Faith – The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ

"They all ate and were satisfied." Why read the miracle of the multiplication of the loaves this Sunday? Here we see the mystery of our physical and spiritual realities intermingling. Too often, they can feel separate. When we go to Mass, how often we appear more ordinarily human rather than stretching toward the divine.

Perhaps our experience of the Eucharist is fairly mundane. We notice when a new sacramental wine has been selected. We feel the varying textures of the host and wonder if they'll ever bring back the one that tasted distinctly like wheat. As we shuffle up to the front and stride back to our pew, we notice the looks on people's faces and the clothes on their backs. We get distracted by the crying child, the man blowing his nose, and the mechanical sound of the air conditioner kicking in. How human we are, how earth-bound, how material!

And how good God is for entering into these selfsame realities. How good God is for proclaiming "the kingdom of God," for "heal[ing] those who needed to be cured," for having mercy on a tired and hungry crowd. How many of the crowd noticed what had been done for them? Did they realize their dinner was a miracle? How often do we miss the deeper reality of the Eucharist? Even if in the moment of receiving Communion we don't experience radical ecstasy and don't feel any different, there is a tangible reality to cling to. Our God loves us enough to become bread for us, not only to feed us but to be fed upon by us.

Then taking the five loaves and the two fish, and looking up to heaven, he said the blessing over them, broke them, and gave them to the disciples to set before the crowd. They all ate and were satisfied. And when the leftover fragments were picked up, they filled twelve wicker baskets. — Lk 9:16-17

Vacation Bible Camp: Essex Catholic Community Vacation Bible School is taking place this summer July 15-19 from 9:00 a.m. - 12:00 p.m.

Throughout the week they will make an imaginary trip back in time to learn about a formative period of our Christian Faith - the Church during the Middle Ages in Europe (the time of King Arthur & Robin Hood). They will pretend to be a band of pilgrims traveling with our guide and spiritual mentor, St. Francis, to the Cathedral of St. James in Spain.

The program is ideal for children, ages 5 and above (5th grade seems to be the typical limit). Younger children are welcome to attend, but need to have a supervising adult present at all times. Your children will... Sing, dance, pray, eat, and play outdoor period-related games & activities! Create AMAZING, period-related crafts designed by educators! Experience hilarious, dramatic skits that will make the saints of this period come alive! Delve into what it means to be a pilgrim, making their way to God, and reflect on Bible Stories that help them do just that! If you are interested, please contact Marie at marietcookson@aol.com and a registration form will be sent to you.

Ever wanted to learn more about Denmark? Amalie is 15 years old, has an interest in painting, playing the guitar and singing in a choir. What about Sweden? 17 year old Elsa wants to cook Swedish food for her family, enjoys outdoor activities like skiing and swimming, and wants to be a true part of your family. Max from Switzerland is very talkative and likes to laugh a lot, enjoys most ball sports and loves history. Please contact Jan Bedard - 802-338-2492 or gbedard920@gmail.com to learn more!
