Cycles of Faith – 31st Sunday in Ordinary Time

Attendance Last Week:
4:30 p.m. 54      9:30 a.m. 106

Christ loves us first. So much of the Christian life is as simple as that. Today's Gospel is a prime example! "Now a man there named Zacchaeus, who was a chief tax collector and also a wealthy man ... was seeking to see who Jesus was." We may have gotten used to the story of Zacchaeus, this short, seemingly innocent man who climbs a sycamore tree in his desperate desire to see Jesus. But this colorful, children's Bible illustration isn't what the gathering crowd would have seen. They would have seen the white collar criminal. Tax collectors were notorious for extortion. They were collaborators with the oppressive Roman overlords, overcharging for taxes and skimming a cut off the top. And how does Jesus respond to this man?

"Come down quickly," Jesus says, "for today I must stay at your house." If you had been there, would you have believed it? No doubt there were other disciples in the city or, at the very least, kind, generous, and just people. "Good" people. But those aren't the people Jesus chooses to share a meal with. Christ loves us first. He chooses Zacchaeus even before the man makes a public profession of his repentance.

"The Son of Man has come to seek and to save what was lost." We may not be tax collectors and extortionists — I hope not! — but we all have elements of our lives that are lost. We have wounds from childhood, unresolved anxieties or attachments, daily fears. No matter how "put together" we are, we all have our lost moments. Some days, it may feel like we can't see over the ways they crowd our inner life. Today's Gospel invites us to do something a little strange. Don't let your flaws, failures, or hang-ups prevent you from seeing Jesus. Take a deep breath. Go climb a tree, because Jesus is passing by. And he wants to stay in your heart today.

Mentors Needed at Hinesburg Community School: Mentoring is a unique way to make a difference in the life of a child. Mentors at the Hinesburg Community School volunteer one hour of their time on a weekly basis to establish lasting friendships with a Hinesburg youth. The Connecting Youth Mentor Program pairs fifth and sixth graders nominated by teachers and counselors with an adult volunteer from the community. The Mentor Program offers a friendship that can be a source of support as students navigate the sometimes difficult years of middle school. Mentors meet students at the school during an hour that works for the student, mentor and teacher. A Mentor Room offers a place to play games, do crafts, or anything else the mentee might be interested in exploring. The most important quality an adult must have is a commitment to mentor for one school year. The Mentor Program is currently looking for a few more adults for the program. Men are especially needed. If you are interested in becoming a mentor or have questions about the program, please call Ginny Roberts at the school at 482-6248. You can also email her at groberts@cvsdvt.org.
