

SAC February Minutes

Welcome and Prayer

Present at the meeting: Dan Queenan, Charlie Allen, Kris Swarthout, Fr. Ellis, Dolly Hinze, Paul Berry, Megan Schuchman, Dave Marrese, Katherine Kingelhut, Maura Carland

Principal's Report:

Reminder to send agenda items to Colleen in advance of the meeting

Gala Update: Chairs Crystal Wood and Amy Marth chairs held first committee meeting and have chairs for all parts except live auction ELP committee formed to keep those families in the loop

Fund a Need is the central piece of the event 3 R project Renew, Refresh, Rejuvenate. Fire Marshall came in and gave the go ahead. Moving preschool upstairs to get them more integrated into the community. Also addresses Mr. Berry's concerns about safety and building access. Fund a Need will support teacher wish lists to accommodate this big move. We are working with CSCOE to write a grant to get some additional funds.

Catholic Schools Week: The service project was pet themed to match the book fair themes. We made toys for Secondhand Hounds. Talent show was great, gym was full. Friday we had a scavenger hunt throughout the building. Parent feedback- explain theme days better.

Online Enrollment: This was a big request for us to go paperless. Has there been feedback. Paul Berry thought it was pretty quick went through both kids in 20 minutes. We have talked about incentivising registration so we have a better idea of next year's numbers for budgeting purposes.

Budget process has begun.

Educate is in process of becoming a communication hub as well as grades, etc...
2018-2019 Calendar proposals for next year.

Summer Program Options: Survey response was really good in terms of interest. Mr. Berry working with Sheri Riviere on details for the summer program. Suggestions to offer the program on a limited basis a few weeks at the beginning of the summer.

Other Business

How is the Catholic Financial Raffle going? We are about about 25% of our goal as of the end of January.

Next year look at whether we can sell tickets before they have the hard copy in hand.
Sell tickets after Mass again next year.

Ask for all unsold ticket to be returned by 2/23. SAC members and their children will sell raffle tickets at the Fish Fry after Mass on the 24-25. Megan will create signup genius for the Fish Fry.
