Reflection

"He is not God of the dead, but of the living."

For those who understand and live the command that God gave to the Israelites, "Love God with our whole heart, soul, mind and strength, and your neighbor as yourself" there will be life after our earthly sojourn "for those who are deemed worthy to attain to the coming age." The Sadducees understood that Jesus meant they would not be "deemed worthy" if they failed to love God and their neighbor as themselves.

Do we understand that?
Will we be deemed worthy?

Annually in November the Diocese of Houma-Thibodaux celebrates a Mass for Native Americans. Bishop Jacobs* will preside at this year's Mass on Friday, November 22, 2019 at 6:30 pm at St. Charles Borromeo Church, Pointe-aux-Chenes. While the liturgical environment and music will reflect Native American culture all Catholics are welcome to participate in this celebration, in which we commemorate St. Kateri Tekakwitha, an 18th century Mohawk Indian who lived near what is now the U. S.-Canadian border in northern New York State.
