Reflection

“Behold the Lamb of God.”

Today's Psalm, “Here I am, Lord; I come to do your will” is the response of John the Baptist to God's call to “prepare the way of the Lord.”

People were drawn to John, not because he proclaimed his own greatness, but because he understood that there was one to come after him who was greater than he.

When he saw Jesus walk by he proclaimed, “Behold the Lamb of God.” John accepted and fulfilled his role to prepare the way for the “man who ranks ahead of me” and not to seek his own glory. John directed his followers to Jesus; they became his disciples and eventually responded to God, “Here I am, Lord; I come to do your will.”

Do we accept the role God has given to us and stand ready to say, “Here I am, Lord, I have come to do your will!” when God calls us to be all that he has created us to be and prepare the way for Jesus to enter our lives and the lives of others?

Bishops Appeal

REDISCOVERING OUR FAITH

Annual Bishop's Appeal

"If we walk steadily and faithfully...God will lift us to greater things."

*St. Francis de Sales, Patron Saint of the

The 2021 appeal will support: seminarian education, our retired priests, Catholic education through our Catholic Schools Office, and Parish Youth Formation via the Office of Parish Support.

Each of these ministries impact the lives of our youth and parishioners, and answers the Lord's calling for vocations.

Pray for the Unborn

Almighty God, our Father,
you who have given us life
and intended us to have it forever, grant us your blessings.

When the sacredness of life
before birth is attacked, give us the grace to stand up and proclaim that no one ever has the authority to destroy unborn life.

THANK YOU!!

Thank you to our generous donors who helped to make our Christmas Angel and Elderly Scrolls programs so successful.

It is through this generosity that we were able to help 14 elderly parishioners with money and food, 11 families with gifts and food, and 5 other families/individuals who needed help with groceries.

Your donations were a true spirit of Christian charity.

May you continue to be a blessing to many.

Flower Envelopes

Starting in 2021, envelopes for flower donations will be discontinued.

The new plan is to have donations for altar flowers written out on a form that will be similar to the Mass Intentions form.

Names of persons to be honored with the flower donations will be written out on this form.

The bookkeeper and money-counting team are trying to make the process more efficient and reliable.

More details on the new procedure will be published when the new form is created.

Thank you for your cooperation.

THANK YOU!
