Reflection for Sunday's Scripture

People are looking for Jesus. People want to follow Jesus. What they really want is not so much what Jesus is saying, but what Jesus can give them in this life. Jesus reminds them that although He can give them bread in this life, what they really should want is life eternal. The account ends here today but we know that eventually the people reject Jesus because they want miracles and food and power in this life—not the hard work of fulfilling the word of God, seeking the will of God and sacrificing themselves for the good of others.

What do I want? What do we want? Are we willing to be formed by Jesus and by His understanding of the Holy Scriptures? Are we willing to lay down our lives for God and for neighbor?

Through the intercession of Our Lady of Prompt Succor, may we be spared all loss of life and property during this hurricane season,
let us pray to the Lord.
